CHAMPIONS TROPHY: BCCI SAYS NO TO PAK TRAVEL, PCB NOT AMUSED

With less than three months to go for the ICC event, the relationship between two subcontinental countries could affect the venue for the event

INDIA PROPOSES HYBRID MODEL AGAIN

Right from the beginning, the BCCI had maintained that the Indian government will take a call on whether the team would travel to Pakistan or not. On Friday, the BCCI reportedly claimed that they had intimated PCB about not travelling and had proposed a hybrid format like the Asia Cup where India played all their games in SL. This time India might opt for UAE

PCB CHIEF NOT FOR ANY HYBRID MODEL

- Hours after reports emerged, PCB chairperson Mohsin Naqvi categorically denied receiving any formal communication from the BCCI
- "Till today, no one has discussed any 'Hybrid Model' nor are we willing to talk about it. But we have been showing good gestures for the last few years. No one should expect us to do it all the time," Naqvi said

PUTIN SAYS INDIA DESERVES STATUS OF SUPERPOWER

Cites fastest growing economy, population, culture to make his point

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin sprang a pleasent surprise by saying India deserves to be included in the list of global superpowers.

Putin is among India's closest allies, but seeking to add the country to the exclusive superpower club was a welcome gesture, particularly when even netas of the ruling alliance in the country have not sought to give it that spin. India's articulated ambitions at present are to jump from the fifth largest economy in the world to the fourth and third positions, and to get a permanent seat at the UN Security Council.

"India should undoubtedly be added to the list of superpowers, with its billion-and-a-half population, the fastest growth among all economies in the world, ancient culture and very good prospects for further growth," he said while addressing the plenary session of the Valdai Discussion Club in Sochi on Thursday.

Putin also called India a great country, with the largest population of 1.5 billion, and said they were developing relations with India in all directions. Both Putin and Prime Minister Narendra Modi share great vibes, with the former recently joking at the BRICS Summit in Kazan, "you understand me without a translator."

"President Putin has been extremely positive on India over the past few years and he has been consistently talking about two great powers - India and China, particularly as economic powerhouses. It's in the same strain that he makes references to Prime Minister Modi. He has also been appreciative of India's independent foreign policy," former Ambassador to Russia P S Raghavan told this newspaper.

Putin said the volume of cooperation between Russia and India is increasing manifold. Talking about the defence cooperation between the two nations, he said, "Look at how many types of Russian military equipment are in service with the Indian armed forces. There is a great degree of trust in this relationship. We don't just sell our weapons to India, we design them jointly."

He referred to the BrahMos cruise missile and said that this was made for use in air, sea and land which has enhanced India's security. "These projects show a high level of mutual trust and cooperation."

VISION BASED ON TODAY'S REALITIES

"Our vision of where and at what pace our relations will develop is based on today's realities. The volume of our cooperation is increasing many times over, every year," President Putin said

1967 VERDICT NIXED

SC lifts crucial bar that kept AMU out of the minority list

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

IN a landmark verdict on his last day in office on Friday, a Supreme Court bench led by Chief Justice of India D Y Chandrachud overruled by 4:3 its 1967 position that the Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) can't claim minority status because it was created by a statute.

The seven-judge bench, however, left the issue of deciding AMU's minority status to a regular bench while laying down a series of tests to make the determination. The bench should also examine the 2006 decision of the Allahabad High Court, which struck down a 1981 amendment conferring minority status on the varsity — based on the principles laid down in this judgment.

While the CJI authored the majority judgment on behalf of justices Sanjiv Khanna, J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, justices Surya Kant, Dipankar Datta, and S C Sharma wrote separate dissenting opinions.

"The decision in Azeez Basha is overruled. The question on deciding the minority status of AMU must be done on the basis of the tests laid down in the present case. Papers to be placed before the CJI for constituting a bench to decide the issue and correctness of 2006 Allahabad HC judgment," the CJI said in his verdict.

In 1967, a five-judge bench in the Azeez Basha case had held that AMU was a Central university and couldn't be considered a minority institution. In the majority opinion on Friday, the court held that the valid proof of ideation of a minority community to establish the institution can be determined from letters and other materials. "Indicia can be proven by private communication and speeches relating to the struggles of the minority community. It is also not necessary to prove that administration rests with the minority....The right guaranteed by Article 30(1) is applicable to universities established before the commencement of the Constitution."

Justice Datta, in his opinion said AMU was not a minority institution. He wondered how a two-judge bench could at all request that the case be placed before a bench of at least seven judges, adding another simliar bench could well doubt the 'basic structure' doctrine and request a 15-judge bench for adjudication.

DETERMINING THE STATUS

1. Consider the genesis of the educational institution; identify who was the brain behind establishing the institution
2. Determine the purpose for which it was established. Must predominently be for the benefit of a religious or linguistic minority
3. Trace steps taken towards the implementation of the idea — who all funded, who made effort to obtain land, etc
4. Who took steps for establishing institution, such as obtaining permissions, constructing buildings, and arranging other infrastructure

Lokpal seeks Sebi chief's explanation on complaints

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TAKING cognisance of complaints of impropriety and conflict of interest filed by Trinamool Congress MP Mahua Moitra and two others, anti-corruption body Lokpal on Friday sought explanation from Sebi chief Madhabi Puri Buch on the matter. The complaints were made on the basis of a report by US-based short-seller Hindenburg Research, according to an official order which asked Buch to submit her response within four weeks.

The Lokpal said its order, signed by Lokpal chairperson Justice A M Khanwilkar and five other members, is only procedural and not an expression of its opinion on any matter. "This opportunity is being afforded to the named RPS as per the mandate in the third proviso of sub section (1) of Section 20 of the Lokpal Act, before the bench would proceed to determine whether there exists a prima facie case for investigation into the allegations," it said.

The order, signed by judicial members Justices L Narayana Swamy, Sanjay Yadav and Ritu Raj Awasthi, and members Sushil Chandra and Ajay Tirkey, said Buch can file an affidavit within four weeks from the receipt of the order.

The Lokpal has listed the matter on December 19 for further consideration.

In a post on X on September 13, Moitra said she had filed a complaint with the Lokpal, urging it to forward it to the ED or CBI for preliminary probe followed by a "full FIR enquiry".

Waqf row: FIR against Surya for sharing 'fake' news on farmer suicide

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Haveri

BENGALURU South BJP MP Tejasvi Surya has been booked by Haveri police along with two others for sharing a "fake" report related to a farmer's suicide and linking it to Waqf row on social media.

Rudrappa Balikayi, 24, died by suicide in 2022 at Haranagiri village in Haveri district.

The MP shared the "fake" report published by two Kannada digital media platforms on his social media account on Thursday, stating that it was the first death in Haveri due to Waqf row. Local police issued a clarification the same day that the news is false and the farmer ended his life for other reasons.

Along with Surya, the police have booked cases against the editors of the two digital platforms for publishing the report.

A senior police officer from Haveri said Rudrappa Balikayi's father Chennappa filed a complaint stating that his son died by suicide on January 6, 2022, and he had taken loans amounting to Rs 7 lakh. Ruddappa's family was given compensation by the state government then.

The police have launched an investigation into publication of the report related to the 2022 suicide on November 7, 2024, linking it to the Waqf row. Two weeks ago, a group of people attacked a local Muslim leader in Haveri district following rumours that their lands will be taken over by the Waqf Board. This incident has now become an election issue.

Reacting to police action on Friday, Surya, who is in Haveri campaigning for BJP candidate Bharat Bommai, said farmers from Haveri met the visiting JPC chairman and submitted a petition stating that the farmer ended life after learning that his four acres of land had been listed as Waqf property.

"That report was published by media representatives. I posted this on social media so that the government would take action. When I questioned why farmers are being targeted, they filed an FIR against me and the media representatives. The farmer's father stated that his son committed suicide because his land had been listed as Wakf property," Surya said.

"There is a problem with the Waqf Act. We will amend it. We will curtail the Waqf Board's authority. We will protect the interests of farmers of the state and the country," he said.

MODI: CONG TRYING TO DIVIDE OBCs, RESTORE J&K's SPL STATUS

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday kicked off his campaign for the Maharashtra assembly polls at Dhule, tearing into the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) in general and the Congress in particular.

He claimed during the Congress rule, there were two constitutions — one for India and another for Jammu and Kashmir. But the BJP government implemented Dr BR Ambedkar's constitution in Jammu and Kashmir by removing Article 370, which granted special status to the state, he added.

"The Congress was unhappy with this decision. So, it is trying to bring back Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir with the help of its ally. However, we will never allow this to happen," Modi said.

Modi's comments came two days after the Omar Abdullah-led government in Jammu and Kashmir passed a resolution seeking restoration of statehood and special status.

Attacking the MVA in Maharashtra, Modi urged people not to elect 'the corrupt' alliance which he alleged first illegally formed a government and then looted the state.

MVA is an alliance of Opposition parties in Maharashtra comprising Shiv Sena (UBT), NCP (Sharadchandra Pawar) and the Congress.

Modi alleged the Congress wants to create rift among the OBCs by making them fight among themselves. "Congress thinks only when the OBCs are weakened, will the path to power open for the grand old party," he alleged. Modi claimed that this is a strategy followed by the Congress since the days of Jawaharlal Nehru.

Maharashtra is a crucial state to win for the BJP after the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. Modi, who is scheduled to address 10 rallies across the state, said India's growth story will be incomplete without Maharashtra.

HC quashes proceedings against two ED officials

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE High Court of Karnataka on Friday quashed proceedings initiated against Deputy Director Manoj Mittal and Assistant Director Murali Kannan of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) based on a police complaint filed by B Kallesh, Additional Director, Social Welfare Department, accusing them of forcing him to name CM Siddaramaiah and others in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation scam.

Justice M Nagaprasanna quashed the crime as well as the proceedings against them after taking note of a memo filed by the counsel of Kallesh, which stated that he didn't want to pursue the matter.

On July 23, after hearing a petition filed by the two ED officials questioning the legality of the crime, the court stayed further investigation of the crime and orally observed that no officers will be safe and they will not perform their duties if a complaint was filed against them for discharging their duties.

The ED had registered a case against the officials of the corporation and the Union Bank of India under Section 3 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act. It had issued summons to Kallesh and recorded his statement. After this, a search and seizure operation was conducted at his office, which brought out incriminating materials disclosing the involvement of several officials.

After the operation, Kallesh filed a police complaint against the two ED officials, accusing them of criminal intimidation and breach of trust.

25 lakes to be cleaned by end of Nov

Silt accumulated in lakes; contractors instructed to take before and after photographs

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

WITH the South West monsoon ending and North East monsoon receding, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has taken up intense cleaning of 25 lakes across the city.

Chief Engineer of Lakes Vijayakumar Haridas said they will focus on clearing inlets and outlets, creating wetlands and constructing sewage diversion drains. The work will also include de-weeding of the lakes and buds, clearing pathways, deep cleaning toilet blocks and cleaning silt traps. Contractors have been instructed to take before and after photographs of the lakes. The project started on November 4 and is set to be concluded by the month-end.

REPRESENTATIVE PICTURE

The project was welcomed by Dr Lingaraju Yele, the great grandson of Yele Mallappa Shetty who donated land to create a tank for irrigation and help farmers in and around KR Puram's Basavanapura and surrounding villages about 100 years ago. He stressed that the development of lakes should be guided by hydrological perspectives, rather than administrative boundaries. "Upstream lakes should be cleaned first as they carry pollutants to the lakes downstream. The BBMP seems to have understood the cleaning process by now," he remarked.

BBMP sources said that seven waterbodies, including Kammagondanahalli Lake in Dasarahalli zone, Kempambudhi Lake in South, Nallurhalli Lake in Mahadevpura, Mangammanahalli Lake in RR Nagar, Avalahalli Lake in Yelahanka, Doddakallasandra Lake in South and Sarakki Lake in Bommanahalli zone, were cleaned from November 4 to 8.

From November 11-16, the Palike will take up Bagalgunte Lake in Dasarahalli zone, Byrasandra Lake in the South, Shilavanthanakere in Mahadevpura, Chikkabasathi Lake in RR Nagar, Allasandra Lake in Yelahanka and Uttarahalli Lake in Bommanahalli zone.

Between November 19 and 22, Shivapura Lake in Dasarahalli zone, Siddapura Lake in Mahadevpura, Jogi Lake in RR Nagar, Kaggadasapura Lake in East, Kogilu Lake in Yelahanka, Devakare and Arakere in Bommanahalli zone will be taken up. An official said the lakes have accumulated silt due to heavy rain, resulting in the growth of hyacinth and weeds. "We are carrying out the cleaning work to ensure the lakes are full," he added.

BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath inspects Indira Canteen in RR Nagar

'Seal non-residential buildings with tax arrears in RR Nagar'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath inspected the RR Nagar Zone. He visited various places in the city on Friday as part of his tour and instructed officials to seal non-residential buildings with tax arrears and recover property tax dues in connection with revision cases.

During his visit to the office of the Assistant Revenue Officer of Laggere, he listened to the public's complaints and the inconvenience faced regarding e-khata. He suggested that officers should streamline e-account processes to ease land transfers.

At MEI Road in Yeshwantpur in RR Nagar zone, he assessed the ongoing 950-metre white-topping project and directed officials to complete the work as soon as possible.

Addressing the media he said the white topping work on MEI Road commenced a month ago, with clearance from the Traffic Police Department. Works like installation of water canal, sanitary line, duct installation, chamber, and footpath work are in progress on the said road. "Work should be expedited and a report should be submitted every week on the progress of the work. Officials should also prepare a proper plan and complete the work within the stipulated time," he instructed.

The commissioner also visited Nagarbhavi Lake to inspect the fencing work around it. He instructed officials to raise a wall to prevent sewage inflow from the Rajakaluve, as directed by Lokayukta. The measure aims to protect the lake by redirecting sewage while allowing rainwater inflow.

Further, during his visit to Indira Canteen in Kottige Palya to check the quality of the food, a customer said that clean and quality food is being served. The Palike chief also visited the garbage transfer and collection station next to the Vrishabhavati Canal on Mysore Road and instructed enhanced cleanliness to avoid foul smell.

Shobha to CM: Transfer KIADB land to BMRCL

ENS @Bengaluru

UNION Minister and Bangalore North MP Shobha Karandlaje has written to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, urging him to take steps to expedite the process of handing over the 45-acre Karnataka Industrial Areas Development Board (KIADB) land to Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL), which is planning to build a multi-modal transportation hub at Hebbal and Hebbal Amanikere.

In her letter, the minister stated that BMRCL has written a formal letter to the State Government in March 2024 requesting the transfer of the 45-acre land, which is in possession of KIADB. "The BMRCL has committed to pay the price fixed by KIADB towards payment of compensation to landowners. The BMRCL has planned construction of a modern multi-modal transport hub, multi-level car parking, a modern depot, and other related infrastructure facilities at Hebbal. This initiative will definitely beef up the operational strength of Namma Metro," she stated.

She noted that delay in handing over the land to BMRCL by KIADB will only lead to time and cost overruns besides affecting the lives of citizens. "I am sure you will accord top priority to my request and instruct Urban Development Department and Industries department to immediately initiate steps to hand over the 45-acres of land to Namma Metro and make the lives of Bengalureans better," she stated in the letter.

Australian curriculum to be piloted in schools

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

ABOUT 4% of Australia's population is of Indian heritage, a number which has doubled over a decade, highlighted Hilary McGeachy, Australian Consul General in Bengaluru, during the 20th annual conference of the Association of International Schools of India (TAISI), which marked the debut of the Australian Curriculum in India.

The curriculum is expected to provide Indian schools with diverse educational tools that align with international standards, providing students a competitive edge in the global academic landscape. The event also introduced 'Education 4.0' - an initiative aimed at integrating Artificial Intelligence (AI), social media, and emotional intelligence into school curriculums.

Angelique Smith, Associate Director of International Education Strategic and External Relations, SCSA, at Department of Education, Western Australia, highlighted that the curriculum will be initially piloted in 10 schools across different parts of the country.

The curriculum, which has been implemented for over 30 years in countries like Japan and Malaysia, allows regular CBSE schools to offer dual programmes without the need for separate campuses, Angelique said, noting that this move is in response to the rising demand for international education among India's middle class, particularly in the smaller cities. Syed Sultan Ahmed, Chairperson of TAISI, highlighted that the pilot programme, which began last year in Punjab and aims to expand and refine curriculum's implementation.

Minority welfare dept helps students land govt jobs

SUMAYYA PARVEEN A @Bengaluru

FORCED by rising costs of private coaching for competitive examinations, the state minority welfare department had launched a free residential coaching programme last December for aspirants of Indian Administrative Services (IAS) and Karnataka Administrative Services (KAS). Now, less than a year in, 55 students from religious minority communities have secured government jobs across various sectors.

The initiative provided 10 months of intensive training to select candidates. Of the 3,300 applicants who appeared for entrance examinations across 19 centres across the state, 400 were chosen. Officials from the department highlighted that this model not only improves accessibility, but also allows better monitoring of students compared to the earlier stipend-based support.

Directorate of Minorities Assistant Director Anjanappa S told TNIE that for many years, the department assisted aspirants with monthly stipends for the basic preparation. The students selected through the examination were sent to coaching institutions in New Delhi, Hyderabad and Bengaluru, with the government bearing their tuition fee. However, failing to oversee the aspirants, the department decided to come up with the residential coaching free of cost. This academic year will have two batches, with 150 students for KPSC and UPSC each, Directorate of Minorities Director Jeelani H Mokashi said, adding that the process of the examination has been modified too, with objective papers brought in and negative marks allotted for each wrong answer.

The director also said the new batch consisting of 300 students is expected to begin in December or January.

Directorate of Minorities Joint Director Shashi Kumar Gowda said while one of the aspirants succeeded in clearing the UPSC preliminary examination, many more notifications are yet to be out. The KAS re-examination is scheduled for December this year, and the department is expecting a 50% success rate from the first batch.

POSTS BAGGED
The first batch secured 55 posts, including 35 in the District Armed Reserve (DAR), five as civil police sub-inspectors and two civil police constables as well as in the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF). Other positions include five as account assistants, one each as co-operative inspector, sericulture extension officer, field inspector, Intelligence Bureau officer, Commercial Tax Inspector, and clerks.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

09TH November : It's Saturday, ruled by Saturn, and the Moon is in a relationship with this key planet. So, what does this mean? Well, Saturn favours all people who work hard, do what they say they'll do, and follow the rules. If, on the other hand, you're one of those people who likes to let it all hang out, you may come unstuck!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Dreams, imagination and intuition are important at the moment and are vital to any solution to practical problems, but you can't get away without hard, practical work. You may also look closely at domestic questions to see if they can be solved by an unusual approach.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It's a serious moment, yet one when you can consider strange new options. You may be taking responsibility for group affairs, yet be careful not to over-commit yourself. Recent delays in communication should be lifted and long-awaited news could arrive soon.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
If you're following up career proposals, then you might usefully spend the next few days planning interviews, making applications and plotting your next great move. Directness and honesty about your thoughts and feelings will be appreciated by those closest to you.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Venus, ruler of love and affection, makes a temporary withdrawal from stressful relationships, hopefully easing some of the tensions which are bedevilling personal and professional relationships. If you have offended anyone, then you might be wise to apologise now - not next week!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
One reason for hold-ups has been your doubt about a particular course of action. However, over the coming days the sheer speed of developments may take you by surprise. Secret information may cause a change of plan, but if you do change your mind, you'd better let other people know about it.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You may have been shouldering more than your fair share of responsibility for acquaintances or colleagues. The current period presents you with a chance to redress the balance and set the record straight. If you do this now, you'll no doubt avoid unnecessary hassles some way down the line.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Your lunar alignments encourage an unusual and independent point of view. You may also, as it happens, devote as much time as is necessary to sorting out domestic problems. A few days engaged in consulting family and friends and implementing overdue improvements will save trouble later.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Powerful planetary patterns continue, as does the uncertainty about where current developments are leading. Changes over the coming few days may at first be so subtle that their meaning will not be clear until next week. Mind you, that's not too long to wait.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The financial situation remains critical, and you may be tempted to sit on the fence, waiting for a resolution. However, if you are too passive, you must expect to risk making a loss. Perhaps the central issue is your willingness to spend money on relationships or subsidise a loved one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The simultaneous movements of the Sun and Uranus are about to have an effect on your emotional life that will be as dramatic as it is difficult to control. A breath of fresh air could revitalise an old partnership - and can only add to your quality of life.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The Moon is on your side, so it's only to be expected that family members and people you live with should be backing you to the hilt. Not for the first time your planets show the possibility of dramatic financial dealings and important agreements. Yet illusions you hold so fondly now, may be rudely shattered before long.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Plans for domestic change which were initiated earlier in the year but were never completed should be brought to a successful conclusion soon. The only things required are a little determination and a large dose of confidence. Above all, you should believe in yourself!

POLICE traced a two-and-half-year-old girl who was allegedly kidnapped by a woman near Pipeline Road in Malleswaram on Thursday. After analysing CCTV footage, Vyalikaval police found the girl near Devaiah Park and reunited her with her parents.

The accused was identified as Suma (name changed), a resident of Huliyurudurga, near Kunigal in Tumakuru district. Police said the woman who took the child was suffering from mental illness.

The incident took place on Thursday around 9.20am when the girl was playing outside her house near Pipeline Road. The girl's parents were preparing to send their elder child to school, when Suma approached the child and spent a few minutes with her before taking her away.

Unable to find her, the worried parents searched for her in the locality. They went through CCTV footage of adjacent buildings and found a woman taking the child away, and lodged a kidnap case with Vyalikaval police.

"An operation was launched to trace the kidnapped girl and she was found with the woman near Devaiah Park in the wee hours of Friday. The girl was rescued and reunited with her family," the police added.

Police sent Suma, who has no criminal background, back to her town with her family as it was established that she suffered from mental illness. "She had come to the city to visit her brother, who lives in the same locality where the girl's family lives. She found the girl playing outside her house and took her away. CCTV footage revealed that she played with the girl for more than 10 minutes before taking her away," police said.

HC: Wife can't be made co-accused just for staying with accused husband

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court said when there is not even a single allegation of the involvement of the wife of the accused in the manufacturing and storing of spurious liquor, she cannot be brought in as co-accused merely because she was staying with the husband.

Justice M Nagaprasanna made these observations while dismissing the petition filed by complainant R K Bhat questioning orders passed by the trial courts dismissing his application seeking to implead the wife of accused Norbert D'Souza, a resident of Kodman village of Bantwal taluk in Dakshina Kannada district, as a co-accused in the criminal case.

"The application is misconceived and filed with an oblique motive to settle scores with the husband Norbert D'Souza, the accused No 3, that too, at a pre-trial stage," the court said while quoting the judgments of the apex court which held that the power under Section 319 of the CrPC cannot be exercised at a pre-trial stage, to bring in another accused.

A complaint was registered in April 2020 by the jurisdictional detecting officer of the Karnataka Excise Department for offences punishable under the provisions of the Karnataka Excise Act.

The inspector of excise conducted the investigation and filed a chargesheet against three persons, including Norbert.

It was stated in the chargesheet that when the excise officials were conducting an inspection, they found that accused No 2 had possessed a large quantity of spurious liquor and infrastructure for the manufacture of the spurious liquor in the backyard of the house of accused No 3. They drew up a mahazar and seized several materials from the house which was in the name of Norbert.

The complainant filed an application under Section 319 of the CrPC seeking to implead Norbert's wife as accused No 4. The trial court rejected the same in November 2022. It was challenged before the sessions court which also rejected it in June 2024. Hence he moved the high court.

The petitioner contended that the application should have been allowed as the wife was aware of illegal activities and there was ample evidence for trial against her, but it was rejected by the trial courts.

BT-Pierian Expands Horizons, Sets up Sprawling Maiden Facility in Kerala

BT-Pierian Managed Services LLP, a joint venture(JV) between US-based Baker Tilly and Bangalore-based Pierian Services, opened its first office in Kerala at Lulu Tech Park in Infopark, Kochi. The move by the market leader is part of the efforts to further ramp up operations by foraying into uncharted regions.

Pierian Services co-founder and board member Gurunath Kanathur said that the Kochi office has 80 seats. "We anticipate outgrowing this space soon and plan to expand to a larger facility in Kochi," he added.

Team BT-Pierian: Ligia, Brigid, Deanna, Christopher Johnson, Karsen and Gurunath

'Location Map'

On the choice of Kochi as the site of the venture, Gurunath said, "This joint venture was first established in Bangalore. But we soon outgrew our space there. Kochi was a natural choice. We didn't believe that we would arrive here this soon. There are two reasons why Kochi took priority over other places -- because of the significant talent pool available in the state and the amount of work, which the Kerala government has done when it comes to infrastructure. Also, there is no hesitation in acknowledging the fact that Karnataka doesn't have infrastructure as phenomenal and great as the one available here."

Hand-holding

Regarding the crucial aspect of industry-academia hand-holding, Gurunath while sounding affirmative disclosed that talks were under way with a few institutions on this count. "The venture will be offering internships to students from educational institutions in the state. We have already begun talks with some of the institutions."

Primary Focus

Elaborating on the plans spelt out by Gurunath, Global Workforce Strategy managing principal Deanna R Merryfield said, "We have significant growth plans in India. In Kochi, Bangalore and across India we fully expect to hire over 1,000 people in the next couple of years to continue to grow. This is our primary focus."

Meanwhile, BT-Pierian will be providing equipment to two Prematric Hostels for tribal students in the state as part of its stated policy of giving back to society.Infopark CEO Susanth Kurunthil, who addressed the inaugural function, was quite upbeat on BT-Pierian's decision to choose Kochi as the location for its first facility in Kerala.

Baker Tilly is a leading advisory CPA firm with a global presence, while Pierian Services provides professional services in managed services, assurance, advisory, digital and consulting.

FARMER'S SUICIDE AT CENTRE OF PRIYANK-TEJASVI POLITICAL WAR

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru/Hubballi

IT-BT and Rural Development and Panchayat Raj (RDPR) Minister Priyank Kharge and Bangalore South Lok Sabha member Tejasvi Surya indulged in a slugfest over the death of a farmer from Haveri. While Surya had stated on X that the farmer died by suicide after the Waqf Board sent him a notice, Kharge termed it false news. The police have registered a case against Surya for spreading misinformation.

Taking to X, Kharge stated that state BJP leaders are spreading misinformation and fuelling communal tension for electoral gains. "This isn't the first instance of Tejasvi Surya acting irresponsibly. In his eagerness to please his political masters, he seems willing to damage Karnataka's reputation. The BJP has become an anti-state unit, ready to defame its own state to advance individual careers. This pattern of misinformation has even made its way into the BJP's "WhatsApp university" syllabus now," he posted.

He later told reporters that the Supreme Court too has raised concerns over spreading fake news. BJP has made this fake news an industry and speakers like Surya and Shobha Karandlaje are spreading it. "Surya had tweeted false news about farmers suicide and later he deleted. This might have resulted in clashes and an FIR has been filed against him. Should we felicitate people who spread fake news," he asked. Deaths of people for other reasons have been used for political gains by BJP, he alleged.

Hitting back, Surya charged that Kharge "is a typical incompetent Congress dynast who thinks he can do whatever he wishes with the State machinery. But every time, his incompetence puts him back in his place. When I tweeted about Farmer's suicide in Haveri due to Waqf land grab, he got the Haveri Police to register a false case, accusing me of spreading misinformation. He got the Police to not only lie, but he even intimidated media to hide the reality. On Friday, father of the deceased farmer himself has exposed how changes in Pahani by Waqf Board pushed his son to suicide".

He accused the state government of exploiting farmers' land to mobilise Muslim votes ahead of the by-elections.

Campaigning for Shiggaon BJP candidate Bharat Bommai on Friday, Surya claimed that the state government is trying to gain Muslim votes by using Waqf laws to seize agricultural land. He said land in multiple taluks is being claimed as Waqf property. This is being used to damage farmers and deprive them of their agricultural subsidies and loans as land once classified as Waqf, farmers cannot get agricultural loans or sell it, he pointed out.

He alleged that the government is silencing the media to hide truth.

BJP misusing JPC like it does CBI, ED: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

LAW and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil has accused Jagadambika Pal, the chairman of the Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) on the Waqf (Amendment) Bill-2024, of attempting to mislead voters during his recent visit to Karnataka, ahead of the byelections to three Assembly seats.

Addressing the media here on Friday, Patil claimed that Pal's visit was unauthorised, as it was conducted without the presence of other JPC members. He alleged that the visit was a political manoeuvre, involving Pal alongside BJP MPs and leaders, and was intended to spread misinformation. "This is a blatant misuse of the JPC, similar to how the BJP has misused agencies like the CBI, ED, and I-T departments," Patil asserted.

The senior minister criticised Pal for not seeking any information from the Karnataka government before his visit, suggesting that the purpose was purely to create political drama ahead of the elections. "By doing so, the JPC chairman has disrespected his position. The BJP is resorting to spreading falsehoods to gain electoral advantage, but voters will not be swayed by such tactics," Patil emphasised, noting that most of the representations Pal received were from BJP-affiliated people.

Patil also highlighted that Karnataka is governed by strong laws, such as the Land Reforms Act, ensuring that no one's land can be unjustly taken. He accused the BJP of attempting to create divisions among communities and castes for electoral gain. "The Prime Minister should address the behaviour of the JPC chairman," Patil remarked, calling for accountability.

Reddy mining case now trump card for Congress in Sandur

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR
@ Sandur, Ballari

COUNTERING BJP, Congress has raked up the illegal mining case, especially targeting former minister Janardhana Reddy, who was arrested and barred from entering Ballari for years for his alleged involvement in illegal mining.

BJP has been harping on the Scheduled Tribe Welfare Board fund transfer issue during campaigning in the Sandur bypoll. The illegal mining case is Congress' counter to that.

During his campaigning, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said Reddy's induction into BJP shows how the saffron party is tolerant towards corrupt people. Despite Prime Minister Narendra Modi's statements that he does not support corruption, BJP allowed Reddy to rejoin the party, he pointed out. "Reddy is eyeing the Sandur mining area again. People here should defeat the BJP candidate Bangaru Hanumanthu," he said.

Labour Minister Santosh Lad said Reddy is only interested in mining in Sandur and not its people. Sandur is a stronghold of Congress and it will continue to be he said, campaigning for Annapoorna Tukaram, wife of E Tukaram, who has been elected to the Lok Sabha.

A senior BJP leader said Congress is attacking the party and Reddy as they have raised the issue of ST Board scandal.

To protect Sandur, BJP must be defeated: Siddu

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Ballari

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah, who is on the campaign trail ahead of the bypolls, declared that in order to protect Sandur and its surrounding hills from mining activities, the BJP must be defeated in the upcoming byelection.

Speaking at a campaign rally in support of Sandur Congress candidate Annapoorna Tukaram in Bannihatti village on Friday, Siddaramaiah alleged that BJP MLA G Janardhana Reddy and his supporters want to reintroduce the 'Republic of Ballari' culture by fostering fear in the public. Hence, it is essential that BJP candidate Bangaru Hanumantha be defeated in the bypoll.

Further, Siddaramaiah claimed that during the Ballari Padayatra of 2013, Reddy had warned the people of Ballari not to support him, and "I held an election campaign on the premises of a temple and I found that people were scared to even speak. They were afraid to give us water, but I drank water from a house. It showed us how Reddy and BJP cared about the Constitution".

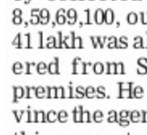
"When BS Yediyurappa was CM, he visited Ballari, but no official met him as they were intimidated by Reddy. They want to create a similar situation now, but voters won't let that happen again. Development works like providing drinking water, building roads and schools will be done by minister Santosh Lad and MP E Tukaram. Congress candidate Annapoorna should win with a margin of over 50,000 votes," Siddaramaiah added.

SC notice to K'taka, DKS on CBI plea

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday sought replies from the Karnataka Government and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, after hearing an appeal filed by the CBI challenging the state government's decision to withdraw its consent to the probe agency for investigating a disproportionate assets (DA) case against the KPCC chief.

A two-judge bench of the top court, led by Justice Surya Kant and comprising Justice Ujjal Bhuyan, issued notice to Shivakumar and the state government, while seeking their replies on the appeal of the CBI.



The current Karnataka cabinet headed by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on November 23, 2023, held the previous BJP government's 2019 move to give consent to the CBI to investigate the DA case against Shivakumar was not in accordance with law and decided to withdraw the sanction.

On August 29, the Karnataka High Court held as "non-maintainable" a petition filed by the CBI and a BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal challenging the Congress government's decision to withdraw the consent. Later, the CBI had moved the apex court challenging the HC order.

As per the CBI case, the Income Tax Department had carried out a raid in 2017 on various premises of Shivakumar in New Delhi and other places. The agency collected a total of Rs 8,59,69,100, out of which Rs 41 lakh was allegedly recovered from Shivakumar's premises. He could not convince the agency as to where this amount originated from and how it came in his possession, the CBI alleged.

After the raid, a case was registered by the CBI against Shivakumar before the Special Court for Economic Offences under provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961. It is also to be noted that following this I-T case, the ED also registered a case against the DCM, and he was subsequently arrested on September 3, 2019.

Accused in SDA's suicide case apply for anticipatory bail

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

DESPITE attempts by Belagavi Police to arrest Belagavi Tahsildar Basavaraj Nagaral; Somu, PA of Women and Child Development Minister Laxmi Hebbalkar, and first division assistant Ashok Kabbaligar, who are accused in the case of suicide of Rudreshwar Yadavannavar, a second division assistant in the Tahsildar's office, the three suspects applied for an anticipatory bail on Friday.

For the past few days, the Belagavi Police have been unable to arrest the three, even as the BJP leaders have been mounting pressure to nab them for allegedly harassing Yadavannavar, who hanged himself in the official chamber of Nagaral in Belagavi on Monday night.

Sources said the police are under pressure to not arrest the three, even after an FIR has been filed against them. Nagaral is said to have attended office on the day Yadavannavar hanged himself. Police sources said the investigation into the suicide case was under way and all those who were in touch with Yadavannavar on WhatsApp a day before he took his life, have been issued notices to cooperate with the investigation.

A few days before the suicide, Yadavannavar had through his last WhatsApp message, named all the three accused as responsible for his death. It has come to light that he was under intense pressure from the three to allegedly cooperate in carrying out illegal transfer of ownership of several lands in the Belagavi region.

Yadavannavar had allegedly confided in some of his friends that he was being mentally harassed and forced to carry out illegal work in the office. Even after accepting a bribe of Rs 2.5 lakh from him, the Tahsildar had not assigned him a different job in the same office.

The police are under pressure to not arrest the three, even after an FIR has been filed against them. Nagaral is said to have attended office on the day Yadavannavar hanged himself

- Sources

The police have been looking at CCTV footage inside and outside the Tahsildar's office and in the nearby areas to examine the movements of people around the place of the crime on the day Yadavannavar committed suicide. Meanwhile, the BJP leaders in Belagavi alleged that the police department changed the investigating officer abruptly, bowing to political pressure. In place of the CPI, the department named ACP Shekharappa as the investigating officer in the case.

I gave land for schools, what about Gowda family: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHALLENGING the Deve Gowda family on donating land, DCM DK Shivakumar declared that he had personally donated 25 acres of land across Kanakapura to establish schools. "Has the Deve Gowda family given even a single gunta of land in Hassan, Ramanagara or Channapatna?" he asked, in response to Gowda's allegations that the DK brothers were demanding payments for school land. "Ask anyone in Kanakapura, they'll tell you the truth about our contributions to education."

Taking aim at former CM HD Kumaraswamy, he said, "Yogeshwara has transformed Bisilamma and Mahadeshwara temples with investments of Rs 4-5 crore. Has Kumaraswamy developed even a single temple in Ramanagara or Channapatna? Has he provided drinking water facility for the people?" He contrasted Kumaraswamy's alleged election-time handouts of Rs 2,000-3,000 with Congress' impact on people through its guarantee schemes.

Referring to Gowda's statement about passing the torch to his grandson, Shivakumar raised concern about the party's grassroots workers. "Deve Gowda might anoint his grandson, but what happens to hardworking JDS members who've toiled for years? Has Kumaraswamy empowered any party worker?"

Meanwhile, Gowda, who was campaigning in Channapatna, pulled no punches, urging citizens to question the integrity of the current leaders. He declared that the bypolls would be the dawn of a new leadership for Karnataka. He also spoke of communal amity. "We must live in peace. I have always stood for unity. We are all human beings, Hindus and Muslims alike. The results will be out on November 23, and I will be back among you in the Muslim Mohalla, working alongside you," he vowed.

SIDDU'S CLAIM ON CM POST CREATES POLITICAL BUZZ

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's declaration that he will be chief minister for the remaining three-and-half years, during his campaign in Sandur on Thursday, has created a ripple in political circles. His statement has been interpreted in many ways whether he is unlikely to resign, come what may, or whether it is part of a strategy to polarise AHINDA voters, especially Kurubas, in the November 13 bypolls to Channapatna, Sandur and Shiggaon assembly constituencies. Siddaramaiah has focused more on Sandur (ST seat), where the stakes are high as it is a AHINDA dominated seat. Comparatively, in Shiggaon, he had passed buck to the party high command on choice of candidate, which was Yasir Ahmed Khan Pathan. In Channapatna, it is Deputy CM DK Shivakumar who is playing a high-stakes game where Vokkaligas call the shots. "Siddaramaiah being an accused in the MUDA scam, is patting his own back to instil confidence in Congress legislators that he will continue as CM. But the truth is he himself, DCM DK Shivakumar and AICC president Mallikarjuna Kharge know when he is going to resign, which is imminent," said BJP state president B Y Vijayendra. It is to encash votes of some communities that Siddaramaiah has claimed he will continue as CM, he added. He predicted that BJP will win Shiggaon hands down. "Congress was under the illusion that it would win Channapatna and Sandur, but those seats are also slipping out of their hands. So Siddaramaiah has camped in Sandur keeping aside his other work," he said. "He is such a great man that he has said he was CM, he is the present CM and will be the CM," taunted former prime minister HD Deve Gowda.

GOVT MAY CUT FUNDS FOR GUARANTEES IN BUDGET

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

ALLOCATION in the state budget for the five guarantee schemes, introduced by the Congress government, could see a drop in the next financial year.

The government is also conducting a survey, overseen by the guarantee implementation committee, to ensure that the benefits are reaching the deserving people.

The last budget allocated Rs 57,000 crore to implement the Gruha Jyothi, Gruha Lakshmi, Anna Bhagya, Shakti and Yuva Nidhi schemes. A report by the guarantee implementation committee stated that Rs 52,000 crore had already been spent by August-September. The government appointed the committee in February 2024 and former minister HM Revanna was made its chairman.

"In the next budget, the government is likely to allocate Rs 50,000 crore for the schemes and it is unlikely to exceed Rs 55,000 crore. Using information technology, it has been found that there were errors in GST and data tabulation. The committee discussed it with the chief minister at a recent meeting," government sources said.

Revanna said that teams of 60-70 people in each district have taken up a door-to-door survey, getting feedback from the people. Details of those claiming benefits and the amount they have earned/ saved will also be collected. It will also help understand their problems, he added. "The number of beneficiaries cannot be reduced. The allocation will be calculated by the finance department and chief minister for better implementation of guarantees," he said.

As per committee data, Rs 37,000 crore was allocated in the first phase when the schemes were launched. Under Gruha Lakshmi, 1.22 crore beneficiaries were identified and till August, Rs 30,285 crore was spent. The Gruha Jyothi scheme benefited 1.61 crore people and till September, Rs 10,259 crore was spent. Anna Bhagya helped 51.39 crore beneficiaries and Rs 8,433 crore was spent till July. An expenditure of Rs 7,696 crore was incurred to implement the Shakti scheme where 321 crore women travelled for free till October-end. Under the Yuva Nidhi scheme, the exchequer saw an expenditure of Rs 650 crore till September, benefiting 177 lakh students.

After K'taka, TN makes snakebite notified disease

TN reports 13-16k snakebite cases every year

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

THE Tamil Nadu government on Friday announced that snakebites have been declared as a notified disease under the Tamil Nadu Public Health Act, 1939, becoming only the second state in India after Karnataka to do so. The state reports around 13,000-16,000 snake bite cases in the official portal every year, 75% of which are from non-venomous snakes, said Dr T S Selvavinayagam, director of public health and preventive medicine.

This move is in line with the Union Health Ministry's action plan to reduce snake bite deaths by half by 2030, an official release said, adding that it would also improve data collection, clinical infrastructure and allocation of anti-snake venom to hospitals. The World Health Organisation has also launched a global initiative to control snake bite-induced deaths and disabilities, the release said.

A Government Order was issued by the state's health department on November 4 and a notification was later published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, mandating all public and private hospitals to compulsorily notify snake bites in the Integrated Health Information Platform-Integrated Disease Surveillance Programme.

The release further stated that snake bites cause high morbidity and mortality in agricultural workers, children and vulnerable sections living in snake-endemic regions. It also noted that there is a significant gap between snake bites reported and deaths caused. Notifying it as a disease would help in enacting comprehensive prevention and treatment strategies. Snake bite envenomation is an acute life-threatening medical condition. It is also a preventable public health condition often faced by rural populations in tropical and subtropical countries.

In February, Karnataka became the first state in the country to make snake bites a notified disease.

KASHMIRI MAN DETAINED UNDER 'LOVE JIHAD' LAW

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhubaneswar

A man accused of 'love jihad' and allegedly forcing a 27-year-old woman to convert was detained by the police here on Friday. The accused Sameer Mansur (30), is a native of Bihar and reportedly worked as a technician in Jammu and Kashmir. The woman is employed with a travel agency in Bhubaneswar. According to the police, Sameer came in contact with the woman, who belongs to Kujang in Jagatsinghpur district, through an online gaming application in 2022. He allegedly concealed his real name as well as religion and identified himself as Sameer Kumar of Bihar.

Both developed a relationship, and spoke over the phone for several months. Earlier in March, Sameer arrived in Bhubaneswar to meet the woman. He took her to Puri and reportedly compelled her to maintain a physical relationship with him. However, the woman realised that the accused had misled her. After a quarrel on the issue, Sameer allegedly forced her to convert her religion and marry him.

First-ever survey of islands on, but K'taka fails to share data

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

EVEN two months after the Survey of India (SOI) sought details of islands along its coast, the State government and coastal agencies are yet to share the details.

In August this year, the agency had written to research agencies and district administrations of coastal regions across India, including Karnataka, for details on islands and islets, including their names, survey numbers and geo coordinates.

"This is the first time such a detailed study is being done. But no data has been shared by Karnataka. Details were sought from Uttara Kannada, Dakshina Kannada and Udupi regions. In fact, there was only one response from a deputy commissioner in the form of an acknowledgement to the letter, but the authorities are unable to give the required information as they don't know which agency is to do the survey and how it needs to be done," SOI sources told TNIE.

Now, in the absence of information, the SOI team from Bengaluru will conduct the study, planned from November to March, covering the 370-km coastline from Karwar to Mangaluru. Satellite images have been obtained, and now ground surveys will be done and compared to the base maps, an SOI official said.

This is the first time details are being obtained to know the area of development, channel future development, ascertain coastal boundaries and know how much land has been lost and gained over time due to erosion.

In the letter, the SOI also sought details of areas falling under the Karnataka State Coastal Zone Management Authority, on the administrative body managing the islands, the population, facilities and infrastructure present, and environmental status. "The information is intended to support acquiring and producing geospatial data services, including maps, under the National Geo Policy-2022 for updation of island data," the letter read.

Venkateswara Rao, Director, Karnataka Geo-Spatial Directorate, SOI, said, "So far, data is available with us on land records, but there is no latest information on coastal areas, hence we sought details. But it is yet to be shared. We have some information on the islands, but they don't have names; this also needs to be ascertained."

Unsafe Kerala food products sold in K'taka: Dept

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Department of Food Safety and Quality has decided to write to its Kerala counterpart, urging action against food manufacturers supplying substandard and mislabeled products. This follows a series of inspections in border districts of Karnataka, which revealed widespread violations in food items transported from Kerala.

Over the last three months, 900 samples of snacks and sweets were collected from border areas like Kodagu. Testing found 31 samples contained unauthorised artificial colours, while several packages lacked essential details like manufacturing information and FSSAI registration numbers.

The crackdown was part of larger inspections to tackle food adulteration. The department also collected 1,201 food samples from small-scale and roadside eateries. Initial tests of 65 samples confirmed they were safe, with further analyses ongoing.

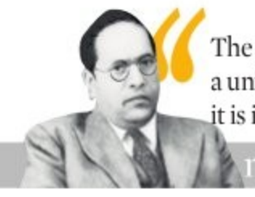
EDITORIAL



"The federation is a union because it is indestructible" — BR Ambedkar

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

— Ramnath Goenka

PRAGMATIC BUSINESS SENSE SHOULD TRUMP U.S. TARIFF THREAT

DONALD Trump's return as the 47th president of the US will likely put Indo-US trade ties under sharp focus. Trump has promised a fresh wave of tariffs under his 'America first' stance, which may adversely affect countries like India and its key sectors such IT, pharmaceuticals, textiles, chemicals and automotive parts. Trump's beef with India's tariffs in specific industries such as automobiles was amply clear during his first term; as recently as last month, he continued with his threat to impose reciprocal tariffs, terming India the "biggest tariff charger". He even proposed import duty increases of 10-20 percent across the board, which could potentially alter the balance of trade that remains in India's favour with a surplus of $35.3 billion in 2023-24. Incidentally, the US is India's largest export destination and second-largest trading partner after China; trade between the two democracies reached over $118.3 billion in 2023-24. Over the past decade, trade has nearly doubled from $61.5 billion in 2023-14, but the fear of Trump 2.0 tariffs is making Indian exporters jittery.

Predictably, Indian currency and equity markets do not seem overly enthused with the prospect of Trump 2.0. While the rupee slipped 17 paise to an all-time low of 84.28 per dollar, both Sensex and Nifty tumbled on Thursday, erasing all gains made following the verdict. That said, if Trump indeed pushes for decoupling from China, where he wishes to impose tariffs as high as 60 percent, the move could benefit India by potentially drawing more US companies looking to diversify supply chains. A recent Nomura report suggested that despite probable strains on trade and immigration, India could benefit from Trump's policies that drive supply chain diversification away from China.

Interestingly, though many fear that Indian exporters could face high customs duties under Trump 2.0, they also hope and anticipate that the incoming US administration would remain pragmatic and transactional in doing business. Some also believe that Trump's return to the White House and may offer both opportunities and challenges for India-US relations. It remains to be seen if the warmth he shares with Prime Minister Narendra Modi will help mitigate the potential risks due to a tightened H1-B visa policy. On balance, both have an opportunity to forge a partnership that is not only beneficial for India and the US, but also helps restore global trade imbalances.

FRAME NORMS TO CARE FOR CAPTIVE ELEPHANTS

KERALA has always had a complicated relationship with elephants, which have been an integral part of the state's cultural history. While elephants have always had a cult status in Malayalam literature and culture, they have also been money-spinners that are shuttled across the state to be paraded at religious festivals and private functions while being subjected to unspeakable torture. The plight of captive elephants has been a compelling issue of discussion for quite some time, with even the judiciary taking up the cause. The Kerala High Court had appointed an expert committee to look into issues pertaining to captive elephants and the amicus curiae has submitted a report.

The report recommends strict regulations for elephant processions, restricting their use and ensuring their welfare. It advises the use of elephants solely for religious ceremonies, not private events such as inaugurations. It also calls for a mandatory 24-hour rest between processions for the animals' well-being. The report further suggests that elephants should not be transported for longer than 100 km per day. It advises maintaining a minimum three-metre gap between elephants at processions and a 10-metre distance between spectators and elephants at events. The amicus curiae has also recommended the prohibition of head-raising contests, prodded bowing and flower showers. Elephants over the age of 65 should not be used at processions, insists the amicus curiae.

While reviewing the report, the court observed, "There is reason to be thankful whales do not live on land." The attitude towards keeping wild animals in captivity has changed with time; the judge's comment reflects this change. Subjecting elephants to cruelty for the sake of culture does not match with modern sensibility, no matter how valued such practices were in the past. Though Kerala has the largest number of captive elephants in India, the issue is not specific to the state alone. The 3,500-odd captive pachyderms in India are used for forest camps, travel, tourism, and at zoos and temples. While releasing all of them into the wild is not an option as they will not be able to survive, the focus must be on providing them good conditions in limited captivity. The increasing social sensitivity towards the plight of elephants should push the authorities to formulate national guidelines to prevent cruelty towards this sensitive giant.

QUICK TAKE

CALMING WAVES OF HATRED

THE Dutch police on Friday arrested 62 people after clashes erupted in the nation's capital following a Europa League football match between Ajax Amsterdam and Maccabi Tel-Aviv. While some reports called this a targeted anti-semitic attack on travelling Israeli fans, others showed the Maccabi fans taunting the local Arabs with anti-Palestine chants. Whatever the provocation, such violence should be condemned on both sides. India is a rare country without a history of anti-semitism. Israelis who visit our nation every year must not provoke Indians on such hot-button issues. And Indian civil society must ensure such fires, if sparked, are doused before they flare.

We see wider divisions between socioeconomic classes and within the federal polity. We must focus on the well-being of all, rather than enriching a select few

IT'S TIME FOR ECONOMIC DEMOCRACY

K M CHANDRASEKHAR
Former Cabinet Secretary and author of As Good as My Word: A Memoir

WHEN I was working as cabinet secretary, then Prime Minister Manmohan Singh would insist on me meeting him one-on-one at least once a week. He would express annoyance in his gentle way if I missed a week. Each time I met him, he would begin with the question, "What is the state of the nation?" I would brief him on internal security, left-wing extremism, administration, events of note and, primarily, the state of the economy. His mind was focused principally on the economy and administration.

If I am asked this question now, what would be my answer? I would say the level of hatred and divisiveness in society has gone down a tad but still simmers, and we are sitting indisputably on top of a volcano. I would say that the income pyramid is still skewed, with billionaires getting richer and the middle classes, lower-income groups and destitute still deprived of hope.

Economic policy is designed for the very rich. I would inform him that the states are of the opinion that the Centre is expropriating a humongous portion of the national resources and that Finance Commission recommendations are cleverly bypassed.

Yet, the country has undergone a sea change during the year. In the first part of the year, the expectation was that Modi and his government would ride back to power on the back of a similar majority as in 2014 and 2019, perhaps even more substantial.

I recall a luncheon at the Civil Services Officers' Institute in Delhi, where I expressed hope that there would be a balance in parliament after the election and that there would be no overwhelming majority. A colleague who had strayed into politics told me the BJP would come back to power with a similar, if not greater, majority. A friend who attended the temple inauguration at Ayodhya wrote that the election is done and dusted, and the ballot box was only a formality.

This did not appear to be beyond reason as the opposition started at sixes and sevens, attempted to unite, then lost interest after the Congress, following the Karnataka election, decided they had it in them to win on their own. After resounding defeats in Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan, they came back to the concept of the INDI Alliance.

The election campaign was one in which abusive language was freely used, unlike most past elections. Muslims were called infiltrators, threatening the security of the sisters and daughters of voters. They were said to produce "more children", which would reduce Hindus to a minority. It was said the Ram temple at Ayodhya would be brought down with a bulldozer and a non-BJP government would give priority to Muslims, even in sports. The expression 'termites' was used to describe refugees from Bangladesh.

Hatred also spewed out from the other side. In the 2019 election, 'chowkidar chor hai' was the slogan of the Congress. In this year's election, the tone was different, with the opposition stating they represented 'mohabbat ki dukaan' while the BJP stood for 'nafrat ki dukaan'. At the same time, caste became a point of division.

SOURAV ROY

Today, divisions continue on many fronts, accentuated by violent language in social media. The difference lies in the patch-up that has been effected between the BJP and its parent organisation, the RSS. The RSS felt sidelined in the first part of the year, with the BJP president even saying they could work on their own now and the RSS, an ideological front, was not necessary to the same extent as in the past.

The RSS had not favoured the agglomeration of power in the hands of the Centre and the indiscriminate use of bulldozers and the ED, CBI and NIA. They feared the possibility of civil war and the disintegration of India. The narrow margin with which the Centre has to work and its dependence on other parties to manage parliament has made the BJP more accommodating. The victory in Haryana probably signals a detente between the parent and its offspring. The results of the Maharashtra and Jharkhand elections could well be the process of consolidation or destabilisation.

However, there are many points of division still lurking. Manipur remains unsolved, with the Kuki-Meitei divide—also a Hindu-Christian divide—becoming increasingly intractable. The One Nation One Election concept and the Waqf Bill may be highly controversial. Parliamentary delimitation, which will follow the census, will create divides in both alliances. UP and Bihar will want delimitation to Increase their political strength, while Andhra, the entire South and East will oppose it strongly. We can expect a replay of the language agitations of the 60s if delimitation is pushed through.

On the economic front, the focus on GDP and per capita incomes, disregarding other human development indicators, can lead to policy formulations that will sharply increase inequalities. India's GDP reached $1 trillion in 2010, $2 trillion in 2017 and $3 trillion in 2020. In due course, it will reach $5 trillion and beyond, but if a few share $4.8 trillion and the rest share the remainder, it is by no means an indication of prosperity.

We need what we may call 'economic democracy', focusing on the well-being of our entire population rather than the continuous enrichment of a select few. This would require a shift in our thinking—from per capita incomes and GDP as indicators of growth to human development indicators. The 16th Finance Commission will have to look carefully at the needs of the states, suggest a mechanism for ensuring their recommendations on vertical devolution are adhered to without deviation by the Centre, and change the parameters for horizontal devolution so that the division of resources among states is fairer.

In foreign relations, we are striving to be recognised as great global leaders and solve disputes abroad, but SAARC, which contains our closest neighbours, is still in a coma. Now that J&K elections have been held and democracy has been partially restored, this is probably the time for a revival of SAARC and SAFTA and mutual discussions, which will strengthen us on the economic front too.

Helmsmanship of the highest quality is needed to steer our nation through troubled waters ahead.

NAMBY-PAMBY LIBERALS vs FIX-IT CONSERVATIVES

PRATIK KANJILAL
For years, the author has been speaking easy to a surprisingly tolerant public

SPEAKEASY

DONALD Trump presents his comeback as a miracle and the world is in for months of punditry on what he did right and what Kamala Harris got wrong. We'll leave candidate-watching to the pundits. What follows is based on observing the voters who actually determine election outcomes. We'll also look at a couple of mysteries the election threw up. Neither thread shows human nature or intelligence in a good light.

The central mystery is, in a nation that takes the law very seriously (the volume of courtroom dramas and cop serials bears testimony), why did most Americans reject a prosecutor and embrace a convicted felon who thinks erratically, speaks menacingly and promises pain for all?

There are two answers, and the first is remarkably stupid: Trump's supporters identify him as an entertainer. Aren't stand-up comics abrasive, too? Entertainers can make good heads of government, like Volodymyr Zelenskyy in Ukraine and Ronald Reagan in the US. If Taylor Swift ran for president, she could actually win. But career politicians identified as entertainers are a different species, especially if the entertainment colours governance.

The second reason for choosing Trump is more substantial: the working classes felt insecure under the Biden administration, the Democrats were in denial of this, and the far right campaign playbook sounded reassuring. Once more, it was the economy, and the Democrats were being stupid.

Trump has constructed Joe Biden as a genial doofus who wrecked the economy. The truth is that the Biden administration salvaged the economy after the pandemic. In his victory speech, Trump promised to build the world's strongest economy. That shouldn't be hard: the US economy is already the world's healthiest.

But there is a vital difference between facts about the economy, which few are equipped to process, and everyday perceptions of value for money and quality of life. Working class people are keenly aware that the basket of goods they bring home remains smaller than before the pandemic.

The economy has recovered but household budgets have not—and people are upset because what Trump calls the 'deep state' didn't get their pain. Trump appeals to indifferently educated conservative men, precisely the demographic which feels degraded if they can't support their families.

A less congenial compulsion of the 'doofus' may have cost the Democrats dearly: Biden's commitment to continue arming and funding Netanyahu's war on civilians in Gaza, which Harris would have maintained. Long before the election, campus protests across the US demanding disinvestment from Israel had shown that people were uneasy about their tax money being used to bomb civilians, especially children. Harris showed no appreciation of this unease.

AP

Voter-watching at the US elections throws up a contrast of perceptions. Though the US economy has recovered, post-pandemic household budgets have not. Americans are upset the Democrats didn't get their pain. The growing Latino support for Trump is about guarding opportunities

Trump's supporters believe that being a businessman, he will withdraw America's commitment to wars as they're bad for business. They couldn't be more wrong. War is lucrative for the well-connected.

Trump's campaign was built on a bedrock of anti-immigrant propaganda which, over a decade, has taught people to believe the US faces a horde of illegal aliens who are being given a red-carpet welcome by namby-pamby liberals, that they are natural-born criminals, and Trump will kick millions of them out.

None of this is true. While immigration is up, even from countries like India, the volume of illegal migrants is nowhere near the figures claimed. The crime rate is actually falling. And the government does not have the manpower to locate millions of illegal immigrants. Trump's anti-immigrant drive will produce heart-wrenching political theatre, not a real purge.

But here is a mystery: Why did Latinos support Trump, despite the racist insults his campaign hurled at them? Because immigrants who have already joined the US workforce oppose further immigration from their own community, for fear of opportunity loss.

Immigration has always been differential in the US. Incoming traffic from the 'home countries' like the UK, Italy and Germany have been more welcome than poorer immigrants from Central American nations. Now, racist divides within those nations are springing up to bar new immigrants.

Abortion rights were a prominent talking point for Harris, because if the women endangered by the ban in the US had voted against Trump, he would have lost. That was the picture when Harris took up the gauntlet. But now, the issue feels less urgent because seven states are legislating in favour of abortion. Surprisingly, they include states like Missouri, which Trump has won.

Looks like the US supports both Trump and abortion, which he opposes. Such paradoxes are possible in a society where lines are no longer clearly drawn, where union workers and immigrants are breaking with decades of tradition to vote Republican.

More than one US analyst says poll analysis is pointless because America is not ready to hand over the most important job to a woman of colour. Besides, while the Trump campaign promised that he would "fix it", a communication as heartily workmanlike as a plumber's calling card, Harris's main message was negative: she asserted that she is not Trump. She did stand for joy and light, while the Old Dreadful peddled fear and darkness. Sadly, the dark side usually wins.

Green subsidy

Ref: Society must push govts to prioritise pollution fight (Nov 8). The government should provide a subsidy on CNG vehicles. Metro travel allowances can be provided to employees. They must increase the capacity of sewage treatment plants. Prevention of pollution is the moral responsibility of everyone.

Unliveable cities

A healthy India is a big question as the oxides of carbon emitted from vehicles pollute the air. Untreated sewage and industrial effluents freely flow into almost all rivers. Unless immediate action is taken, all the cities will become unliveable.

Supporting south

Ref: Better pills for southern discomfort (Nov 8). Population control was a national imperative for so long and south India, especially Kerala, was in the forefront of making assiduous efforts to bring down population growth. The irony is that the pursuit is going to be rewarded by marginalisation. Laws to incentivise these states must be enacted soon.

Cooperative federalism

It is a bitter truth that after seven decades of the country's independence, the BIMARU states are yet to reach the desired level in all social development parameters. As rightly said by the author, it is high time the Centre address genuine grievances of the southern states in sharing the revenue equitably so that friction-free cooperative federalism is adhered.

Engaging children

Screen addiction

Parents in India seem to encourage even toddlers to use mobiles and watch cartoons so they can have time for themselves. Added to it, both parents are busy with office commitments and with a nuclear family, the care towards children is lacking. Parents should give time to their children in the growing stage as it will give more psychological strength and protection for them.

RATAN TATA: A LEADER WHO EMPOWERED A GENERATION OF DREAMERS

NARENDRA MODI
Prime Minister of India

IT has been a month since Ratan Tata left us. From bustling cities and towns to villages, his absence is deeply felt across every segment of society. Seasoned industrialists, budding entrepreneurs and hard-working professionals mourn his loss. Those passionate about the environment and devoted to philanthropy are equally saddened. His absence has been deeply felt not only across the nation but also around the world.

For the youth, Ratan Tata was an inspiration, a reminder that dreams are worth pursuing and that success can coexist with compassion as well as humility. For others, he represented the finest traditions of India, an enterprise and a steadfast commitment to the values of integrity, excellence and service. Under his leadership, the Tata Group ascended to new heights, embodying respect, honesty and credibility worldwide. Despite this, he wore his achievements lightly, with humility and kindness.

Tata's unwavering support for the dreams of others was one of his most defining qualities. In recent years, he became known for mentoring India's startup ecosystem, investing in many promising ventures. He understood the hopes and aspirations of young entrepreneurs and recognised the potential they had to shape India's future. By backing their efforts, he empowered a generation of dreamers to take bold risks and push boundaries. This has gone a long way in creating a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship, which I am confident will continue to positively impact India for decades to come.

He constantly championed excellence, urging Indian enterprises to set global benchmarks. This vision, I hope, will inspire our future leaders to make India synonymous with world-class quality.

IN RECENT YEARS, HE BECAME KNOWN FOR MENTORING INDIA'S STARTUP ECOSYSTEM, INVESTING IN MANY PROMISING VENTURES. HE UNDERSTOOD THE HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS OF YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS AND RECOGNISED THE POTENTIAL THEY HAD TO SHAPE INDIA'S FUTURE. BY BACKING THEIR EFFORTS, HE EMPOWERED A GENERATION OF DREAMERS TO TAKE BOLD RISKS AND PUSH BOUNDARIES.

His greatness was not restricted to the boardroom or helping fellow humans. His compassion extended to all living beings. His deep love for animals was well-known and he supported every possible effort focused on animal welfare. He often shared photos of his dogs, who were as much a part of his life as any business venture. His life was a reminder to us all that true leadership is measured not just by one's achievements, but by one's ability to care for the most vulnerable.

For crores of Indians, Ratan Tata's patriotism shone brightest in times of crisis. His swift reopening of the iconic Taj Hotel in Mumbai after the 26/11 terror attacks was a rallying call to the nation — India stands united, refusing to yield to terrorism.

On a personal note, I had the privilege of knowing him very closely over the years. We worked closely in Gujarat, where he invested extensively, including in many of the projects he was very passionate about. Just a few weeks ago, I was in Vadodara with the President of Spain, Pedro Sánchez, and we jointly inaugurated a facility where C295 aircraft would be made in India. It was Ratan Tata who started working on this. Needless to say, Tata's presence was greatly missed.

I remember Tata as a man of letters — he would frequently write to me on various issues, be it matters of governance, expressing appreciation for government support, or sending congratulatory wishes after electoral victories.

Our close interactions continued when I moved to the Centre and he remained a committed partner in our nation-building efforts. Tata's support for the Swachh Bharat Mission was particularly close to my heart. He was a vocal advocate of this mass movement, understanding that cleanliness, hygiene and sanitation are vital for India's progress. I still remember his heartfelt video message for the mission's 10th anniversary at the start of October. It was among his final public appearances.

TATA'S COMPASSION EXTENDED TO ALL LIVING BEINGS. HIS DEEP LOVE FOR ANIMALS WAS WELL-KNOWN AND HE SUPPORTED EVERY POSSIBLE EFFORT FOCUSED ON ANIMAL WELFARE. HE OFTEN SHARED PHOTOS OF HIS DOGS, WHO WERE AS MUCH A PART OF HIS LIFE AS ANY BUSINESS VENTURE. HIS LIFE WAS A REMINDER TO US ALL THAT TRUE LEADERSHIP IS MEASURED NOT JUST BY ONE'S ACHIEVEMENTS, BUT BY ONE'S ABILITY TO CARE FOR THE MOST VULNERABLE.

Another cause close to his heart was healthcare — especially the fight against cancer. I recall the programme in Assam two years ago where we had jointly inaugurated various cancer hospitals in the state. In his remarks that time, he had categorically stated that he wishes to dedicate his final years to healthcare. His efforts to make health and cancer care accessible and affordable were rooted in profound empathy for those battling diseases, believing that a just society was one that stood by its most vulnerable.

As we remember him today, we are reminded of the society he envisioned — where business can serve as a force for good, where every individual's potential is valued and where progress is measured in the well-being and happiness of all. He remains alive in the lives he touched and the dreams he nurtured. Generations will be grateful to him for making India a better, kinder and more hopeful place.

EAM bats for regional connectivity

Jaishankar in Singapore to attend 8th roundtable of ASEAN-India Network of Think Tanks

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

EXTERNAL Affairs Minister S Jaishankar met Singapore Prime Minister Lawrence Wong on Friday and extended greetings on behalf of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "Had a fruitful discussion on advancing our technology, and industrial partnership. Also spoke about our engagement in regional forums," said Jaishankar after the meeting.

Jaishankar was in Singapore to attend the 8th roundtable of the ASEAN-India Network of Think Tanks (AINTT).

The External Affairs Minister also met Singapore's top leaders, including President Tharman Shanmugaratnam, and discussed ways to advance the bilateral partnership and shared perspectives on regional and global developments.

Jaishankar is in Singapore on the second leg of his two-nation tour, which also took him to Australia.

He started the day-long visit to the country by meeting Singapore's Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry Gan Kim Yong. "Discussed taking forward contemporary partnership, with a focus on industrial parks, green energy, skilling, innovation and semiconductors," the minister posted on X. He also met his Singaporean counterpart Vivian Balakrishnan.

With Defence Minister Ng Eng Hen, he shared perspectives on the security situation in the Indo-Pacific and bilateral defence cooperation.

In the AINTT meeting Jaishankar reaffirmed India's interest in fortifying connectivity. "Recent conflicts and extreme climate events have only underlined the case for new connectivity initiatives. As far as India is concerned, the Trilateral Highway to the East and the India-Middle East-Europe Economic Corridor and the International North South Transport Corridor are major commitments. Understanding their implications is the key to exploiting the opportunities they present," he said.

Jaishankar spoke about three major events that impacted the world during the past few years. "The first is China's entry into the WTO in 2001 that had profound consequences for globalisation. Second is the financial crisis of 2008, which heralded a new era of rebalancing. Third is the 2020 pandemic," he said.

He also said the US had reset its terms across the world over multiple administrations. "A conflict in Ukraine has shaken Eurasia out of its strategic complacency. West Asia/Middle East is seeing longstanding issues and fissures exploding. In our own continent, territorial disputes and challenges to international law have become a significant recurring source of instability," he added.

India-Australia joint exercise begins in Maha

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

IN signs of a deepening India-Australia defence cooperation, war fighting and cricket are expected to underscore the current edition of 'AustraHind' joint training exercise, which commenced the 14-day Foreign Training Node at Pune in Maharashtra on Friday.

The Australian Brigade Commander termed both countries as top-tier security partners.

"The aim of AustraHind is to promote military cooperation through enhancement of interoperability of joint sub-conventional operations in semi-urban environments in semi-desert terrain under Chapter VII of the UN mandate," the MoD said.

Defence Australia said, "Exercise AustraHind will enable the two sides to share their best practices in tactics, techniques and procedures of conducting tactical operations. The exercise will also facilitate developing bonhomie and camaraderie among soldiers of both sides."

The Indian contingent comprising 140 personnel will be represented mainly by a battalion of the Dogra Regiment and 14 personnel from the Indian Air Force.

Democracy basis of ties with US: Rahul writes to Trump

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

DAYS after the US elections, Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi on Friday wrote to President-elect Donald Trump and outgoing Vice President Kamala Harris. Congratulating Trump on his victory, Rahul expressed hope that under Trump's leadership, the two countries would further deepen cooperation in areas of mutual interest.

"I would like to congratulate you on your election as the 47th President of the United States of America. The people have placed their trust in your vision for the future," wrote the Congress leader.

"India and the US of America share a historic friendship rooted in our commitment to democratic values. Under your leadership, we are confident that our nations will further deepen cooperation in areas of mutual interest," Rahul said.

"I also hope that we will continue to work towards expanding avenues and opportunities for both Indians and Americans," he added, wishing Trump "the very best during his second term as President."

Trump, 78, won the race to the White House, trouncing his Democratic rival Kamala Harris. The Republican leader had also served as the 45th US President after his first win in 2016.

As he bid farewell to Washington in January 2021, deeply unpopular and diminished, Trump was already hinting at a comeback. "Goodbye. We love you. We will be back in some form. We will see you soon," Trump had told supporters at Joint Base Andrews, where he had arranged a 21-gun salute as part of a military send-off before boarding Air Force One. Four years later, he kept his word.

In the last few years, Trump was widely blamed for Republican losses, indicted four times, convicted on 34 felony counts, ruled to have inflated his assets in a civil fraud trial and found liable for sexual abuse. He still faces fines that top more than half a billion dollars and the prospect of jail time.

In another letter addressed to the outgoing Vice President Kamala Harris, the Congress leader congratulated her on the spirited presidential campaign and said her unifying message of hope would continue to inspire many. Harris lost to Trump in the hotly contested race.

"Our shared commitment to democratic values will continue to guide our friendship. As the Vice-President, your determination to bring people together and find common ground will be remembered," Rahul said in his letter.

The people have placed their trust in your (Trump's) vision for the future... I also hope that we will continue to work towards expanding avenues and opportunities for both Indians and Americans

Health ministry launches ₹500 cr scheme to boost medical device industry

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

IN a bid to boost India's medical device industry, the Centre on Friday launched a ₹500 crore scheme that will focus on critical areas, including manufacturing, skill development, clinical studies, infrastructure, and industry promotion.

Launching the scheme, Union Health and Family Welfare Minister JP Nadda called it a potential "game changer." Nadda, who also holds the portfolio of the Ministry of Chemicals and Fertilisers, said it would significantly benefit the industry and contribute to India's self-reliance. "The scheme is going to be a game changer. It will not only help the industry but will also be a long leap in making India self-reliant," he said.

Reiterating the government's commitment to supporting the initiative, industry stakeholders were urged to utilise the scheme effectively. "These interventions may look small but the outcomes are big," Nadda said.

"From diagnostic machines to surgical instruments, and from stents to prosthetics, medical devices are critical for the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of diseases," officials said, explaining that India has started exporting ventilators, PPEs, diagnostic kits, surgical gloves, coronary stents, radio-imaging equipment and body implants.

The medical device market is valued at approximately $14 billion and is expected to grow to $30 billion by 2030. India is the fourth largest Asian medical devices market and among the world's top 20 global medical devices markets.

The initial outlay of ₹500 crore will be for three years, up to financial year 2026-27.

The overall scheme consists of five components, including common facilities for medical device clusters, capacity building, and skill development, a marginal investment scheme for reducing import dependence, clinical studies support, and a medical device promotion scheme.

CJI farewell speech: 'No greater feeling than being able to serve those in need'

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

IN an emotional farewell speech on his last working day on Friday, the outgoing Chief Justice of India, DY Chandrachud, highlighted the impact judges can have on the lives of ordinary people through their judgments.

Justice Chandrachud stepped into the shoes of his illustrious father YV Chandrachud — who served as the longest CJI between 1978 and 1985 — on November 9, 2022 and will be demitting office on November 10.

Heading a ceremonial bench, also comprising CJI-designate Sanjiv Khanna, Justices JB Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, which assembled to bid him farewell, the CJI expressed a deep sense of fulfilment.

He said there was no greater feeling than being able to serve those in need. "What makes us tick as judges is the impact that we have on the lives of common citizens," the CJI said, adding, "We are here as pilgrims, birds for short passage of time... but our work can leave a mark..."

He also pointed out that he was being criticised from several quarters in recent times. "I am probably one of the most trolled individuals and judges across the system. I just wonder, from Monday, what will happen to those who troll me? They will be rendered unemployed," the CJI said.

Justice DY Chandrachud seeks forgiveness for any inadvertent mistakes, saying, "If I ever hurt anyone, I seek your forgiveness." | PTI

On criticism of the collegium's meetings, the CJI said, "We sit through the collegium making tough choices, never had a difference of opinion, all meetings were with a sense of humour, but we remember that we are not with any personal agenda but to serve the institution's interest."

Chandrachud said that Supreme Court had been a Chief Justice-centric court. "The registry looks to one person, the Chief Justice. I thought that had to change. I experimented with constituting committees. And my experience was remarkable," he said.

Aiming to bring greater transparency to the court's processes, the CJI said that he implemented a system to publicly display data on all pending cases in the Supreme Court.

NSCN (I-M) threatens violence, seeks '3rd-party' intervention in Naga issue

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE National Socialist Council of Nagalim (Isak-Muivah) on Friday threatened to return to violent ways if the Centre does not agree for a "third-party" intervention to address its demands, which include a separate flag and constitution for the Nagas.

The NSCN (I-M), which carried out a violent insurgency in Nagaland soon after Independence in 1947, entered into a cease-fire pact in 1997 before starting prolonged peace talks with the Centre's interlocutors. On August 3, 2015, the group signed a Framework Agreement with the government in the presence of PM Narendra Modi to find a permanent solution.

In a statement on Friday, the NSCN (I-M) accused the government of betraying the "letter and spirit" of the Framework Agreement. "In order to realise an honourable political agreement, we rule out peaceful means against the ignominious betrayal of the letter and spirit of the Framework Agreement. However, we propose a third party intervention to resolve the betrayal..." NSCN (I-M) general secretary and chief political negotiator Thuingaleng Muivah said.

"But if such a political initiative is rejected by the Government of India, the NSCN (I-M) shall resume the violent armed resistance against India for defending Nagalim's unique history and sovereign existence," the statement warned. It added that the "violent confrontation between India and Nagalim shall be purely on account of the deliberate breach of commitment by India and its leadership to honour the letter and spirit of the Framework Agreement."

The Naga political process hit roadblocks as the NSCN (I-M) stuck to its guns on the core issues of Naga flag and constitution.

'BJP attacks me when I talk of tribal rights'

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

LEADER of Opposition Rahul Gandhi, while addressing a rally in tribal dominated Gumla and Lohardaga on Friday, vowed to increase reservation of ST, SC and OBC up to 28 per cent, 12 per cent and 27 per cent respectively. Rahul explained the true meaning of an Adivasi — calling them the first owners of the land who have the first rights over jal, jungle and zameen of this country. However, BJP calls them vanvasi, which means those who live in the jungles and have no rights over the jal, jungle and zameen, he said.

"Those who call you vanvasi, want to snatch whatever you have...Modi ji comes here and say you are vanvasi, which means you only live in jungles....forest is ours, land is ours and your water is also ours; It does not belong to adivasis, but it belongs to Modi ji, capitalists and Adani as well," said Gandhi. And hence, wherever they go they snatch your land from you, he added. Rahul further added that, BJP has coined a new word – 'vikas,' which means, wherever there is tribal land, snatch it; such is their vikas.

"But, we want that if your land is acquired, it should be taken with your consent and if you have given your land then you must get fair compensation for it and if industries are set up on your land then your children must get employment in those industries," said Rahul Gandhi. "Therefore, we want that your children become engineers, doctors and lawyers and learn to run the factory," he added.

According to Rahul Gandhi, there is only 8 per cent tribal, 15 per cent dalit and about 50 per cent Other Backward Caste (OBC). If you add 15 per cent minority in it and sum it together, it comes about 90 per cent of the total population, he said.

JMM or BJP? Voters in Saraikela confused

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

CONFUSED voters and the party workers are making it difficult for former Chief Minister Champai Soren who is contesting from Saraikela Assembly seat this time. People are confused as the two prominent candidates — Champai Soren and Ganesh Mahli, who contested against each other on JMM and BJP tickets in 2019 Assembly polls, have exchanged sides and are against each other once again under different party symbols.

According to locals, they are in contact with both the candidates and promising to vote for them, but are actually confused whom to support as they have been supporting Champai Soren since years but he has shifted to BJP, while Mahli belongs to the party they have been voting for years.

Notably, after Jharkhand was formed in the year 2000, BJP has never won from Saraikela Assembly seat, but the party has managed to maintain number two position here and has always gave a close fight to the JMM. In the 2014 assembly elections, BJP fielded Ganesh Mahli against Champai Soren, who contested on JMM ticket; Champai got 1.1 lakh votes, while Ganesh Mahali got 95,887 votes, making Mahli lose the elections just 1,115 votes.

But, the situation has changed this time after Champai joined BJP ahead of Assembly polls and Mahli was denied ticket from the party and hence he joined JMM to secure a ticket for himself.

"Even after changing sides, both are in contact with their old cadres seeking votes from them, which has confused them; one of them is their favourite leader, but he has changed his party, while the other one is no so popular but he is in their favourite party," said a local in Saraikela Kartik Mahto. Party workers on both sides are also confused, he said.

Parties warned over remarks on women

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

CHIEF Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar condemned derogatory remarks made against women leaders during campaigning for the Maharashtra Assembly polls due November 20. The chief Electoral office of Maharashtra has urged officials to take action if such remarks are made by candidates.

Kumar's remarks came in the wake of some comments by political leaders in the state. Arvind Sawant, an MP of the Uddhav Thackeray-led Shiv Sena, allegedly referred to Shaina NC, a Shinde-led Sena leader, as "imported maal."

However, Sawant later clarified that he did not name anyone while making the statement. "I only said that someone who is an outsider will not be able to work here. It's their habit to create uproar," he said.

The chief election commissioner has directed officials to ensure that swift action, as per the model of conduct, is taken in case derogatory comments are made by candidates.

He hoped all candidates elevated their level of discourse and conducted themselves in a manner that reflects respect towards women, both in their speeches and public interactions.

Seeking to counter "urban apathy" among voters in poll-bound Maharashtra, the Election Commission nudged its poll machinery in the state to enhance voter participation.

Addressing a review meeting via video conference from Delhi along with Election Commissioners Gyanesh Kumar and Sukhbir Singh Sandhu, Rajiv Kumar said when voters in Left Wing Extremism (LWE)-affected regions such as Bastar in Chhattisgarh and Gadchiroli in Maharashtra can vote in large numbers in recent polls, why Colaba and Kalyan cannot, sources in the office of state chief electoral office said.

The review meeting was attended by senior police and administration officers involved in the November 20 assembly polls. Colaba in the 2019 assembly polls had recorded only 40% voting. In J&K assembly elections, constituencies like Doda, Reasi, Poonch and Rajouri recorded voter turnouts over 70%, with polling stations in even most sensitive areas.

Independent makes Vav bypoll a three-way battle

The Vav assembly by-election in Banaskantha district has turned into a three-way contest, with BJP's Swaroop Thakor, Congress's Gulab Singh Rajput and independent candidate Mavji Patel vying for victory. Patel, who broke ranks with the BJP to run as an independent, is targeting not only his former party but also BJP state president CR Patil. During his campaign, he said, "I want to bring down not only BJP but also CR Patil." He claimed that while he had served the BJP faithfully, the party neglected him. "Now they have to bear the consequences," he said. Meanwhile, the BJP has mobilised ministers to secure the Vav seat.

Yogi's 'caste remark' sparks legal action

A viral video of UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, in which he purportedly uses a caste-related slur, has triggered outrage in Gujarat. The video, which lasts 19 seconds, prompted Gujarat Congress spokesperson Ratna Vora to file a police complaint. Condemning Yogi's use of the derogatory term, referencing a 1938 walkout by Dr BR Ambedkar over word's acceptance, she noted that a 2010 policy and a 2017 SC ruling prohibited its usage. Vora emphasised that Yogi's comments constitute a legal offence and that she would approach district court if the police fail to take action.

Patil's comments on water stir debate

Union minister CR Patil's recent comments in Surat have ignited a debate about government's responsibility. Speaking at a programme with spiritual leader Sri Sri Ravi Shankar on November 3, Patil praised Shankar's efforts for the Yamuna and highlighted PM Narendra Modi's "catch the rain" initiative which promotes groundwater conservation. Patil urged people to participate in water conservation efforts, saying, "Not all work should be expected from the government." His statement has raised questions, with many asking what role the government should play if not in leading such initiatives.

Manipur tribal woman shot, burned to death

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Guwahati

A tribal woman was allegedly shot, captured and burned to death by the militants as violence returned to strife-torn Manipur after a brief lull.

The attack, perpetrated at a tribal village 'Zairawn' in the Jiribam district on Thursday at around 9 pm, had ensued a gunfight which continued for about an hour. Some houses were also torched. The village is around 7 km away from the district headquarters in Jiribam.

Kuki-Zo organisation Indigenous Tribal Leaders' Forum (ITLF) on Friday claimed that Zosangkim Hmar, a 31-year-old woman and mother of three children from the village, was shot, captured and burned to death. The police confirmed that there was a gunfight and houses were burnt but did not confirm the report of death.

"Zosangkim was hit by a bullet in the thigh when the shooting began, said her husband. Zosangkim was a teacher at the local English medium School. They said the assailants allowed him to leave with his elderly parents and children, but refused to let him take his wife.

Omar says committed to people of J&K; BJP MLAs walk out of House

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

IN his first speech in Jammu and Kashmir Assembly after being elected as Chief Minister in the state's first Assembly polls post Article 370 abrogation, Omar Abdullah on Friday said people of J&K want to live with honour, so the Centre must restore full fledged statehood. He termed the resolution on restoration of J&K's special status and constitutional guarantees passed by Assembly as "historic resolution", stating that "there is something in the resolution, given how Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah have reacted".

"We want to live with honour. That is why we are demanding statehood. Our identity has been hurt through August 5, 9 decisions and restoring statehood would be start of healing the wounds," Omar said while speaking in Assembly on motion of thanks on Lt Governor's address. "I am thankful to Lt Governor that he cleared the resolution passed by J&K cabinet on restoration of statehood. I took this resolution to PM and urged him to restore it. My meetings with the PM and HM were successful. And I hope the process to restore statehood to J&K will start soon," he said.

Referring to passage of resolution on restoration of special status in Assembly, Omar said, "We have passed resolution which represents aspirations of people of J&K and through which the world comes to know that our view and consent was not taken on August 5, 2019 decision and we want our special status be returned back".

"We have to look for the future. I know we don't have much hope of getting anything from this central government but they will not be there forever," CM said.

Meanwhile, irked by the eviction of BJP MLAs from Assembly, LoP Sunil Sharma warned of running a "parallel government" if Omar government's behaviour doesn't improve.

2 terrorists killed in gunfight with security forces in Sopore

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

TWO terrorists were killed in a gunfight with security forces in Sopore area in north Kashmir on Friday and bodies of two village defence guards shot dead by terrorists were recovered from Kishtwar. Police also claimed to have solved Sunday's grenade attack on crowded Sunday Market in Srinagar by arresting three persons affiliated with Lashkar-e-Toiba.

Brigadier Deepak Mohan said security forces received specific information about the presence of two terrorists in Panipora village of Sopore in Baramulla district yesterday evening. "A cordon and search operation was immediately launched during which militants hiding in a house fired on troops. The troops acted in a professional manner and retaliated. The militants were fixed in an area and their fire was put under control," he said.

He said tight surveillance was maintained in the area throughout the night.

"As the operation was resumed in the morning, militants fired indiscriminately on troops and in the retaliatory precision firing, both terrorists were killed," he said.

The identity of the slain terrorists and the outfit to which they owe allegiance is being ascertained. "It seems these militants were operating in north Kashmir for some time. Their killing is a big success for security forces," Brigadier Mohan said. Meanwhile, bodies of two Village Defence Guards, who were abducted and shot dead by terrorists in mountainous Kishtwar district, were recovered by security forces today.

"The bodies were spotted lying near a rivulet in Pondgwari area in Keshwan belt in Kishtwar," a security official said.

The deceased VDGs have been identified as Nazir Ahmed and Kuldeep Kumar from Ohli-Kuntwara area of Kishtwar.

The militant outfit Kashmir Tigers, which is off-shoot of Jaish-e-Mohammad, has claimed responsibility for the killings and also purportedly released pictures of the two slain VDG members.

The joint contingent of police, CRPF and army has launched a massive search operation to track down militants involved in the attack.

The security men used drones, helicopters and other surveillance gadgets to track movement of militants hiding in the dense forest area.

3 Maoists killed in encounter with security forces in C'garh, 192 this yr

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

THREE Maoists were killed in an exchange of fire with the security forces on Friday in Chhattisgarh's Bijapur district, about 400 km south of Raipur, police said.

"Based on a specific input about the presence of the Maoists in the Usoor-Basaguda-Pamed area of Bijapur, a joint team of District Reserve Guard (DRG), Special Task Force (STF), CoBRA (elite unit of CRPF) and Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) left for a search operation in the region. On reaching close to the location where Maoists were present near Rekhapalli-Komathpalli hilly forested terrain, an encounter ensued between the forces and the outlaws,"said a police officer in Bastar.

"After the encounter, the troops recovered three bodies of Maoist cadres in uniform. The search operation in the area continues," he said.

The forces also recovered a self-loading rifle (SLR), a sniper weapon, a 12-bore rifle, a muzzle loading rifle, barrel grenade launcher shells and ammunition were seized from the encounter site. The three bodies of the Maoists are yet to be identified as the forces are yet to return from the anti-Maoist operations, the police officer said.

"There has been no report of any security personnel sustaining injuries in the gun battle," the police officer added.

This year, 192 bodies of Maoists have been recovered so far after they were neutralised by security forces in separate encounters in the conflict-ridden Bastar region, which comprises seven districts including Bijapur, according to the police.

On October 4, security forces had recovered bodies of 31 Naxalites following an encounter in a forest along the border of Narayanpur-Dantewada districts in the region.

The security forces are carrying out aggressive anti-Maoist operations under the new BJP government.

In a renewed strategy, the security forces are targeting the rebels in the areas considered as their strongholds. Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai said that the battle against the Maoists will continue till they get wiped out.

Weapons recovered after gunfight

The forces also recovered a self-loading rifle (SLR), a sniper weapon, a 12-bore rifle, a muzzle loading rifle, barrel grenade launcher shells and ammunition were seized from the encounter site. The three bodies of the Maoists are yet to be identified as the forces are yet to return from the anti-Maoist operations, the police officer said

Row in Himachal over who ate CM's samosas

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

TRUST the fluffy Samosas! If left in the wrong hands, they can turn into real hot potatoes. It so happened that some of the samosas were kept for Himachal Pradesh Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu during a function associated with the state Crime Investigation Department (CID) on October 21. They were, instead, served to his security staff!

Over a fortnight later, the hotchpotch over who they were meant for left an unsavoury taste for cops on duty. A probe by the state Crime Investigation Department (CID) termed it an "anti-government" act, resulting in show-cause notices to five police personnel, including a woman inspector.

The BJP has hit out at the Congress-led government for "ordering an inquiry into missing 'samosas" and turning a blind eye to the cases that warrant attention." The CID tried to downplay the incident, saying the samosa gaffe was an internal matter.

However, the matter became political. Leader of Opposition and former CM Jai Ram Thakur said in a video statement: "The Opposition has not eaten those samosas. Those who were served those samosas were a part of the government, so how could the act be anti-government?" Thakur asked. "The state government and the chief minister must have found the matter serious and ordered an inquiry into the samosa episode," he said.

Thakur said allegations of corruption in various state government departments are not being probed but an inquiry was ordered into samosa distribution. Former Himachal Pradesh BJP chief Satpal Satti claimed the Congress government made itself a laughing stock by ordering an "inquiry into samosas".

"The BJP has no issues. False propaganda is being spread against the Congress government," said the chief minister's chief adviser Naresh Chouhan.

Caught in the controversy, the CID termed the episode as an internal matter and urged everyone not to politicise it. "It is our department's internal matter. The government has nothing to do with it," said Sanjeev Ranjan Ojha, Director General (DG), CID.

He said merely verbal orders were issued to find out what happened to the snacks ordered for the chief minister. "No inquiry has been ordered, no explanation is sought and no action will be taken against anyone. People should refrain from escalating and politicizing the matter," he said.

The row over who ate the samosas meant for the CM began when three boxes of refreshments were brought from Hotel Radisson Blue in Lakkar Bazaar of Shimla to be served to the chief minister who had gone to the CID headquarters to attend a function.

However, the boxes were served to the CM security staff, as per the enquiry report which was conducted by a DSP, said sources.

SAMOSA POLITICS

- On October 21, CM Sukhu attended an event of state CID officials at a hotel in Shimla
- Samosas meant for the CM came in packets
- However, the samosas were served to his security staff
- This created a flutter in the state CID; sources said a probe was ordered
- BJP targeted Cong govt for giving attention to non-issues
- CID dismisses charges

The Opposition has not eaten those samosas. Those who were served those samosas were a part of the government, so how could the act be anti-government? — Jai Ram Thakur, Leader of Opposition

Susie Wiles to be Trump White House's chief of staff

WASHINGTON

US president-elect Donald Trump on Thursday made his first cabinet appointment after his decisive election win, while signalling his intent to ditch the outgoing administration's policies by talking to Vladimir Putin.

Trump's campaign manager Susie Wiles will serve as his White House chief of staff, the first woman to be named to the high-profile role and the Republican's first appointment to his incoming administration.

Trump's crushing defeat of Democrat Kamala Harris is already shaking up US and world politics, just two days after Election Day and two-and-a-half months before he returns to the White House.

Putin, the Russian president, hailed Trump as "courageous" for the way he handled himself following an assassination attempt at a rally in July, and said he was "ready" to hold discussions with him.

Billionaire Trump later told NBC News that he had not talked to Putin, the authoritarian leader whom he has repeatedly praised over the years, since his victory but "I think we'll speak."

It marked a seismic shift from the icy silence that has existed between Biden and Putin since Russia invaded Ukraine in 2022, and underscored Trump's criticism of US support for Kyiv. The president-elect has previously said he would push through a peace deal in that conflict — but Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky, who spoke to Trump on Wednesday, said calls for a ceasefire were "dangerous." Chinese President Xi Jinping had earlier joined the list of foreign leaders congratulating Trump, who was criticised by Harris during the election campaign for being too friendly with autocrats.

Trump doubled down on his plans for mass deportations of undocumented migrants, telling NBC he had "no choice" and that there could be "no price tag" that was too much.

Trump's first cabinet pick Wiles enjoys wide support within his team and was notably called on stage during his victory speech on Wednesday morning. "Susie is tough, smart, innovative, and is universally admired and respected. Susie will continue to work tirelessly to Make America Great Again," Trump said of the steely 67-year-old Florida native. The other frontrunners for a place in the Trump 2.0 administration reflect the disruptive shape it is likely to take.

Robert F Kennedy Jr, a leading figure in the anti-vaccine movement for whom Trump has pledged a "big role" in health care, told NBC News on Wednesday that "I'm not going to take away anybody's vaccines."

But the former independent candidate reiterated that the Trump administration would recommend removing fluoride — a mineral US authorities say aids dental and skeletal health — from public water supplies.

The world's richest man, Elon Musk, could also be in line for a job auditing government waste after the right-wing SpaceX, Tesla and X boss enthusiastically backed Trump. AFP

STATE BANK OF INDIA (SBI) on Friday reported a 28% year-on-year growth in net profit at ₹18,331 crore for the quarter ending September, driven by improved asset quality and higher credit sales, both of which the management led by new chairman C S Setty guided for better show in the next two quarters. The country's largest lender had booked ₹14,330 crore of net profit in the year-ago period.

Setty, assumed office last month, said in the reporting quarter, the bank earned an interest income of ₹1.14 lakh crore, up 12.32% YoY, while net interest income grew at a lower pace of 5.37% YoY to ₹41,620 crore, from ₹39,500 crore in a year ago period.

The interest income grew lower because the net interest margin (NIM) came down by 15 basis points (bps) YoY and 8 bps on a quarterly basis to 3.14% from 3.22% in a quarter ago and 3.29% in a year-ago period. Domestic NIMs fell to 3.27% from 3.35% in the June quarter and 3.43% in the September 2023. But the chairman said NIM has stabilised and that he doesn't see any further fall, indicating that there will not be any more increase in deposit rates.

Setty told reporters at the post-earnings presser that the deposits for the system to grow by 11-13% and credit by 13-14%. On the asset quality side, the bank that controls nearly a quarter of the system-wide assets saw improvement with the gross NPAs improving to 2.13% from 2.21% in June 2024, and from 2.55% in September 2023, while net NPAs declining to 0.53% from 0.57% in June 2024, and from 0.64% in September 2023.

Similarly, net NPAs declined by 4.96% on a yearly basis to ₹20,294 crore from ₹21,555 crore and in a year ago period and ₹21,352 crore sequentially.

BOTTOMLINE IMPACTED BY IMPROVEMENT IN NPAS The bottomline was impacted by an improvement in NPAs, which printed in at 1.72% during the quarter against 1.95% QoQ and from 2.43% in the same period a year ago

NATIONAL insurer Life Insurance Corporation (LIC) on Friday reported a 3.75% decline in its consolidated net profit at ₹7,729 crore for the September quarter on the back of higher claim payouts than the premiums it collected, which clipped at 1.5% to ₹1.2 lakh crore from ₹1.07 lakh crore in the year-ago quarter.

The insurance behemoth had earned ₹8,030.28 crore in the year ago period, the management led by chief executive SK Mohanty told reporters here Friday evening.

The insurer's bottomline was impacted by an improvement in gross non-performing assets (NPAs), which printed in at 1.72% during the second quarter of the current financial year compared to 1.95% quarter-on-quarter and from 2.43% in the same period a year ago.

The insurere's net premium income of the company came in at ₹1.2 lakh crore, up 11.5% YoY from ₹1.07 lakh crore but down from ₹1.14 lakh crore in the June 2024 quarter, Mohanty said.

The solvency ratio was reported at 1.98 for the quarter this financial year from 1.90 in the year ago period. Shares of the company traded under pressure in Friday's trade.

The counter settled in the red at ₹915.55 per share on the NSE, down 1.52%. Another reason for the decline in profit of the insurere was the halving of other income to ₹145 crore from ₹248 crore in the same quarter in the previous year.

However, total income increased to ₹2,29,620 crore in the latest September quarter, compared to ₹2,01,587 crore in the year-ago period.

The company's total expenses rose to ₹2,22,366 crore in the quarter as compared to ₹1,94,335 crore in the same period a year ago. Shares of the company have delivered 6.57% returns to its shareholders this year so far but declined 1.6% on Friday to 914.45 on the Bombay Stock Exchange in anticipation of the earnings announced post market hours.

Ashok Leyland net profit jumps 37% to ₹770 cr

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

HINDUJA group flagship Ashok Leyland has reported a healthy 37% year-on-year jump in net profit at ₹770 crore for the September quarter on higher exports income and better margins while domestic sales fell.

The truck and bus maker said its domestic sales volumes fell in medium and light commercials to 25,685 from 29,947 in the reporting period and to 16,629 from 16,998, respectively. This was more or less offset by the 14% growth in sales margin, offering exports at 3,310 units. Defence, power solutions and aftermarket units did well and are expected to post good growth in the current fiscal, the Chennai-based company said in a statement on Friday. Dheeraj Hinduja, chairman, said since the economy is expected to do well in the second half that should benefit our industry. "We remain optimistic about industry prospects for H2 on the back of strong macroeconomic fundamentals, supported by resumption of government spends and good monsoons.

Swiggy public offer: GMP indicates muted listing

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE initial public offering (IPO) of Swiggy was subscribed 3.59 times at the end of the three-day bidding period on Friday. For the ₹11,327.4 crore issue, 57.53 crore shares were subscribed as against 16.01 crore shares on offer, according to exchange data.

Like in the case of every big IPO, maximum interest was seen from qualified institutional buyers (QIBs) whose portion was subscribed 6.02 times. The portion for retail individual investors (RIIs) was booked 1.14 times while the quota for non-institutional investors (NII) fetched 41% of subscriptions.

Swiggy on Tuesday said it has collected ₹5,085 crore from anchor investors. The company's IPO (Initial Public Offer) has a fresh issue of shares worth ₹4,499 crore, along with an offer for sale (OFS) of ₹6,828 crore.

Given Swiggy's current financial position, competitive pressures, associated risks, and valuation, its IPO appears overvalued

SAMCO Securities

The Bengaluru-based company's IPO has a price range of ₹371-390 a share. The valuation of Swiggy has been pegged at about $11.3 billion (about ₹95,000 cr) at the upper end of the price band.

The shares of the food-tech major are expected to make a muted debut on the bourses next week, as per the latest trends in the grey market. Its shares have seen a consistent decline in the grey market premium (GMP) amid a sharp fall in India's equity market and concerns related to the company's path towards profitability.

Last checked, Swiggy shares were commanding a GMP in the range of ₹1-2, indicating a marginal listing gain of 0.2-0.5%.

While analysts at large have given a 'subscription for the long-term' rating to the issue, a few have said that investors may avoid it for the time being.

Zomato, Swiggy violated anti trust law: CCI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AN investigation by India's anti-trust authority has revealed that food delivery giants Zomato and Swiggy, which is backed by SoftBank, have violated competition laws. According to reports, Competition Commission of India's (CCI) documents indicate that their business practices have given preferential treatment to certain restaurant chains that are listed on their platforms.

Zomato has reportedly engaged in "exclusivity contracts" with its partners, offering them reduced commission rates in exchange for exclusive listings. Similarly, Swiggy has been found to guarantee business growth to specific restaurants on the condition that they list with its service. These findings were detailed in non-public documents prepared by the CCI. The CCI probe unit highlighted that the exclusivity agreements between Swiggy, Zomato, and their restaurant partners hinder market competitiveness. These findings, reviewed by Reuters, indicate such arrangements restrict the potential for a more competitive market environment.

The CCI's documents, which adhere to confidentiality regulations, were shared with Swiggy, Zomato, and the restaurant groups that filed complaints in March 2024. These findings had not been disclosed prior to this report. The probe into Swiggy and competitor, Zomato, was initiated in 2022 following a complaint from the National Restaurant Association of India. The complaint raised concerns about detrimental effects that the platforms' anti-competitive practices were having on food outlets.

TCS cuts variable pay of senior level employees

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

TATA CONSULTANCY SERVICES (TCS) has reduced variable pay of its senior-level employees in the September quarter compared to the previous quarter.

Sources said though many senior-level employees received variable pay, it was linked to work from office index and if it was below 85% means, it will affect variable pay. Last quarter, it had paid 70% and it depends on business unit performances too. The company told TNIE, "For Q2, we have paid out 100% QVA (quarterly variable allowance) to junior grades across the company. For other grades, QVA depends on unit's business performance. This is in line with our standard practice across quarters."

Earlier in February, it had asked employees working from home to return to office. It linked hikes and variable payout on their compliance with return to office mandate. Infosys is said to have paid 80% variable pay to employees. TCS' workforce at the end of Q2 was 612,724 and it added a net 5,726 employees in the quarter. During Q2 earnings call, chief HR officer Milind Lakkad said they remain on track for fresher onboarding as planned for the year and have commenced process for recruiting freshers through the National Qualifier Test for FY'26.

ASIANOMICS

TAIWAN

OCT EXPORTS MISS EXPECTATIONS

Taiwan's exports grew slower than expected in October as benefits from booming artificial intelligence industry were countered by the sluggish economy of top trading partner China. Exports grew 8.4% on the year to $41.3 billion, the finance ministry said on Friday. However, it was above September's gain of 4.5%, and marking the 12th straight monthly rise. The ministry said it saw a strong fourth quarter as larger economies cut interest rates, AI application demand was good and the peak end-of-year shopping season was approaching in US and European markets. It predicted November exports could rise between 5.0% and 9.0% on the year. In October, exports to the US jumped 20.5% to $8.65 billion, though off September's rise of 27.3%. Exports to Taiwan's largest trading partner, China, edged down 2.1%.

CHINA

UNVEILS $1.4 TRILLION LOCAL DEBT PACKAGE

China on Friday unveiled a 10 trillion yuan (debt package to ease local government financing strains and stabilise flagging economic growth, as it faces fresh pressure from the re-election of Donald Trump as US president. Finance Minister Lan Foan said more stimulus was coming, with analysts saying Beijing may not want to fire all its weapons before Trump takes over officially in January. In an apparent reaction to the US election and intensifying risks to trade, state media CCTV reported China's cabinet on Friday approved expanding coverage of export credit insurance and will step up support for trade firms. Those investors who speculated on a fiscal bazooka may be disappointed. Local governments, facing high debt and falling revenues, have been cutting civil servants' pay and amassing debts with private sector companies, choking money flows to real economy and fanning deflationary pressures.

JAPAN

HOUSEHOLD SPENDING FALLS FOR SECOND MONTH

Japan's household spending fell in September for the second straight month, government data showed on Friday, as higher prices choked consumers' appetite in a discouraging sign for the central bank's plans to hike rates further. Consumer spends fell 1.1% from year earlier, against median market forecast for a 2.1% decline. On a seasonally adjusted, month-on-month basis, it fell 1.3% versus estimated 0.7% drop. Households have likely continued to cut back spends on food, opting for cheaper alternatives like chicken instead of beef and saving more of their income, an internal affairs ministry official said. The July-September average of consumer spending fell 1.0% as against the same period a year ago, the official said. Consumption and wage trends are among key factors the Bank of Japan (BOJ) is watching to gauge strength of the world's fourth-largest economy and decide how soon to raise interest rates.

Sebi mulling investor eligibility framework for F&O traders

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

CAPITAL Market regulator Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) may bring in investor eligibility criteria for retail investors to participate in the futures and options segment of equities market. An official from National Stock Exchange (NSE) said the Sebi is considering these measures to protect small investors from the vagaries of the F&O market.

"While the regulator has already made some changes to restrict F&O trading, we have approached the regulator to bring in investors eligibility requirements like those for investment in alternative investment funds (AIFs). The Sebi has said it may consider these measures as part of the second round of changes," Sriram Krishna, chief business development officer, NSE, said in a media interaction in New Delhi.

Krishnan advocated the idea of accredited investors for F&O trading as well. Currently, only accredited investors, who are usually high net worth individuals, are allowed to invest in hedge funds, private equity, etc. Individuals seeking to invest in AIFs should have at least ₹5 crore liquid net worth and maintain an annual gross worth of ₹50 lakh. "You define investor eligibility framework and disproportionate trading framework, which means you define how much one can trade. That's the way you can protect investors and prevent them from going into certain products," said Krishnan. Sebi has already taken certain measures to curb high volume in F&O segment. These include increasing lot size by up to three times, restricting weekly expiry to single contract, levying extreme loss margin (ELM) of 2% on short index contracts as well as raising transaction charges securities transaction tax (STT).

Dzire Maruti's 1st 5-star car in global safety test

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

MARUTI SUZUKI'S upcoming compact sedan, Dzire, has achieved a five-star rating for adult occupant safety and four stars for child occupant safety in the Global NCAP crash tests. This marks the first time India's largest carmaker has reached this milestone.

Previously, five-star safety ratings have been associated primarily with models from Tata Motors, Mahindra & Mahindra and European automakers such as Volkswagen and Skoda. This achievement is significant for the Indian market where Dzire is among the best-selling cars. It helps Maruti address past criticism regarding lack of five-star safety-rated vehicles in its lineup. Set to launch on Monday, November 11, new Dzire comes equipped with six airbags, electronic stability control (ESC), and pedestrian protection as standard features.

"The new Dzire's five-star rating sets a significant safety benchmark for Maruti Suzuki, especially when compared to previous versions and other Maruti models we have tested," said David Ward, executive President of the Towards Zero Foundation. "We hope Maruti will strive to reach this high level of safety across their entire model range. If they succeed, it could be transformative for vehicle safety in India," he added.

Global NCAP's crash test protocols assess frontal and side impact protection for all vehicles, as well as electronic stability control (ESC). For vehicles to earn the highest star ratings, they must also pass pedestrian protection and side pole impact tests.

In these tests, the new Dzire's structure and footwell were rated as stable, indicating they can handle additional loading. The driver dummy showed marginal chest protection in the frontal test, while the pole and side impact tests demonstrated full head and body protection for adult occupants.

Sonata Software plans to hire nearly 700 freshers in current financial year

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU-based mid-tier IT company Sonata Software plans to hire 700 freshers in FY25. The company's CFO Jagannathan CN told TNIE that in H1 FY25, they have hired around 225 freshers.

In Q2, the company's consolidated EBITDA stood at ₹177.3 crore and PAT was at ₹106.5 crore, QoQ growth of 0.8%. In global IT services, Sonata's PAT stood at ₹62.2 crore, a 4.5% de-growth QoQ. During the earnings announcement, it said headwinds in Q2 and Q3 FY25 were due to salary increment for mid and senior manager levels, which had a 1.1% impact on EBITDA in Q2. Additionally, there is lower margin as a result of large deals announced in Q1 FY25, impacting three to four quarters.

"These headwinds are being countered by operational improvements that have had a positive impact of 60 bps in Q2. As a result, our net impact at an international level was 50 bps in EBITDA before forex and other income," he said. When asked about macro environment and client spending in second half, the CFO said they believe inflation will continue in the US for a few more quarters. "Though Fed has promised to cut interest rate by another 25 bps before December 2024, we don't expect it to have a major positive impact on customer spending in near term. While the presidential election has taken out the political uncertainty, it is too early to comment on impact of change of guard in the US."

Gukesh is smart enough to ignore all the external noise: Prasanna

Indian GM's former coach expects an interesting match against reigning world champ Liren

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

OVER the past few months, Ding Liren, the current world champion, has wasted little time in telling everybody that he's the underdog to retain the title. The 32-year-old, who has one Classical win in 2024, in an interview to Kaja Snare on YouTube earlier this week, spoke on similar lines. "Worried about losing badly," the Chinese player said.

Vishnu Prasanna, Gukesh's former coach, doesn't expect talk like that to catch the 18-year-old off guard. "I'm sure Gukesh is smart enough to not take it too seriously," he told select media during the ongoing Chennai Grand Masters event on Friday. In a wide-ranging interaction, Prasanna spoke about his current role vis-a-vis Gukesh and why his recent interactions with him have mostly been 'nonsense'. Excerpts:

MASTERS

Friday's results: Arjun Erigaisi bt Amin Tabatabaei, Aravindh Chithambaram drew with Levon Aronian, Maxime Vachier-Lagrave drew with Vidit Gujrathi, Parham Maghsoodloo drew with Alexey Sarana.

Saturday's matches: Gujrathi vs Tabatabaei, Aronian vs Vachier-Lagrave, Sarana vs Chithambaram, Erigaisi vs Maghsoodloo.

Grandmaster Aravindh Chithambaram in action during the fourth round of the Chennai Grand Masters 2024 on Friday | MARTIN LOUIS

CHALLENGERS

Friday's results: Karthikeyan Murali bt D Harika, V Pranav bt R Vaishali, Raunak Sadhwani drew with M Pranesh, Leon Mendonca drew with Abhimanyu Puranik

Saturday's matches: Pranesh vs Mendonca, Pranav vs Sadhwani, Harika vs Vaishali, Puranik vs Murali

● On the last few months
Right now, I am not a part of his team. I'm acting as a mentor. He's probably ready for the event. As it gets closer, it's becoming more tense as a fan, probably and as a close friend. Looking forward to the match.

● On his recent interactions with Gukesh
I don't really discuss a lot with him, most of it is with Mr (Grzegorz) Gajewski. We are probably discussing a lot of nonsense these days (smiles). Our relationship has changed a lot. Right now, not discussing anything so useful (specific to chess). We are more like bantering. He comes and meets me when he's not training intensely between camps.

● On Prasanna's shift from coach to mentor
I think it has been natural. It happened by itself, we didn't really plan anything. There's a very solid team, very good guidance. I just shifted my role to whatever was required for him. We are very comfortable in this zone as well. We have taken his car out (his school gifted him a car). We go out for lunch and stuff like that. My wife is also interacting with him a lot because we are not doing anything serious so she's also there in all our meetings.

● On Liren's insistence that he's the underdog
I'm sure Gukesh is smart enough to not take it too seriously. I don't think Gukesh considers himself the favourite. And, anyway, you start from 0-0. Whatever has happened so far, it doesn't have a real impact. Only after Game 1, we will know who's the favourite. When the players show their cards and how nervous they are... his bad form does not matter. I'm sure he has worked on himself the last few months. It will be an interesting match. Right after Gukesh won the Candidates, there was similar talk and I kind of spoke against it. I would still say that it's pretty even on that day. If Ding's bad form continues, Gukesh is going to do well but it's very unlikely that you are not motivated to play the World Championship. You are in your best shape, probably. I'm sure it will be a tough challenge.

INDIA VS SA

India's Sanju Samson celebrates reaching his century against SA | AFP

Samson's 2nd straight ton helps India win

AGENCIES @ Durban

SANJU Samson became the first Indian to score back-to-back centuries in T20 Internationals as India posted a mammoth 202 for 8 against South Africa in the series opener here on Friday.

Invited to bat, Samson blazed away to 107 off 50 balls, hitting as many as 10 sixes and seven fours. The opener notched his second T20I hundred off just 47 balls. His first had come in India's last outing against Bangladesh last month. Tilak Varma also made a quick-fire 33 of 18 balls and he cleared the ropes twice.

However, South Africa clawed their way back into the game as they stemmed the flow of runs by picking wickets in the last five overs. Pacer Gerald Coetzee, who claimed three wickets, was the pick of the bowlers for the hosts.

In reply, Ravi Bishnoi and Varun Chakravarthy picked up three wickets apiece to bowl out the hosts for 141. Heinrich Klaasen (25) was the top-scorer for South Africa. Coetzee was the second-highest scorer with 23 runs. South Africa are missing their three most successful bowlers from the World Cup campaign — fast bowlers Kagiso Rabada and Anrich Nortje and left-arm spinner Tabraiz Shamsi — as well as Quinton de Kock. Brief scores: India 202 for 8 in 20 ovs (Samson 107; Coetzee 3/37) lost to SA 141 in 17.5 ovs (Varun 3/25, Bishnoi 3/28).

CT: PCB chief denies hybrid model talks

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

HOURS after reports emerged that the Board of Control for Cricket in India has informed Pakistan Cricket Board that the Indian team will not travel for the ICC Champions Trophy, Mohsin Naqvi, PCB chairperson, have categorically denied it. With less than three months to go for the Champions Trophy which is originally scheduled to happen in Pakistan in February 2025, reports emerged that India are preferring to play in a hybrid model with their matches to be hosted in Dubai. In 2023, the Asia Cup was played in a similar fashion with India playing their games in Sri Lanka.

On Friday, shortly after the BCCI sources reportedly claimed that they have intimated PCB regarding the decision, Naqvi held a press conference at Gaddafi Stadium to issue a denial. "Till today, no one has discussed any 'Hybrid Model' with us nor are we willing to talk about it. But we have been showing good gestures for the last few years and no one should expect us to do it all the time,' Naqvi told reporters. "I will take anything in writing to the government and whatever decision they take, we have to follow them," Naqvi added.

"As far as we are concerned, the tournament is being held in Pakistan on schedule and all teams will play here. All the other boards are looking forward to playing in Pakistan," he said.

Rahul continues to toil as India A crumble

AGENCIES @ Melbourne

KL RAHUL'S horror run with the bat continued as he got out in a bizarre fashion to leave India A at a shaky 73 for five on the second day of the second unofficial Test against Australia A here on Friday. Seeking to open the batting for India in case skipper Rohit Sharma skips the first Test against Australia in Perth, Rahul endured a disastrous outing in the tune-up to the Border-Gavaskar Trophy and managed just 14 runs across two innings, having got out for 10 in India A's second innings.

Abhimanyu Easwaran's struggles against the moving ball also did not help India A's cause as they led by only 11 runs with half the side back in the dressing room in their second innings. After bowling out India A for 161 on Day 1, Australia A managed 223. Coming out to bat for the second time in the game, the Indian top-order disappointed again as the Australian bowlers struck some vital blows to help their team inch closer to a series sweep. Looking completely out of sorts, Rahul was bowled in a bizarre fashion after facing 44 balls at the Melbourne Cricket Ground. Rahul misjudged a tossed up delivery and offered no shot as the ball ricocheted off his pads to hit the stumps, leaving the batter embarrassed while he walked back to the dressing room. Brief scores: India A 161 and 73/5 in 31 ovs (Jurel 19 n.o.; Webster 2/14) vs Australia A 1st innings: 223 all out in 62.1 ovs (Harris 74; Prasidh 4/50).

Porel puts Bengal in driver's seat vs Karnataka

ENS/AGENCIES @ Chennai

ISHAN Porel delivered crucial breakthroughs with figures of 4/54 from 23.1 overs, leading Bengal's three-pronged pace attack that claimed nine wickets to secure a significant first-innings lead over Karnataka in their Ranji Trophy match in Bengaluru on Friday.

Resuming on 155/5, Karnataka were bowled out for 221, with Porel striking early. Abhinav Manohar, resuming overnight on 50, added only five runs before falling for 55, while Shreyas Gopal got out for 28 both to Porel. In their second essay, Bengal reached 127/3 and hold an overall lead of 207, putting them firmly in control.

Mumbai close in on big win

MUMBAI: Mumbai closed in on a big win despite Odisha's stoic resistance with the bat as the defending champions reduced the visitors to 126/5 at stumps on Day Three after imposing follow-on, in their match.

Odisha were trailing by another 191 runs as a defeat by an innings loomed large despite their stoic resistance making Mumbai toil. Resuming at 146/5 in reply to Mumbai's 602/4 declared, Odisha made the Mumbai bowlers work hard for nearly 95 overs in the first innings, and after Ajinkya Rahane asked them to follow-on as the hosts took a 319-run lead, the response was no different. Sandeep Pattanaik led the fight for Odisha in the first innings with a knock of 102.

Andhra chase big target

VIZIANAGARAM: Optimistic visitors Uttarakhand nosed ahead of Andhra after bowlers from both sides called the shots on an eventful third day's play by grabbing as many as 16 wickets in their Group B match. Set a target of 321 after Uttarakhand's sporting declaration at 129/9, Andhra were 8/1 at stumps, needing another 313 runs for victory.

Hyderabad concede lead

JAIPUR: Hosts Rajasthan managed a slender first innings lead in their match against Hyderabad. In reply to 410 made by the visitors, Rajasthan rode on a century each by Mahipal Lomror (111) and Shubham Garhwal (108) to post 425. Hyderabad were 36/0 at stumps.

Leaks disrupt Kerala clash

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: A heavy downpour resulting in leaky dressing room roofs led to early stumps at the St Xaviers College ground at Thumba where hosts Kerala held a strong position, reducing Uttar Pradesh to 66/2.

Delhi stare at loss

CHANDIGARH: Delhi batters, barring opener Sanat Sangwan (70) and Yash Dhull (58), continued with their no-show as Chandigarh's left-arm spinner Nishunk Birla grabbed his second 6-wicket haul of the match to put the hosts on the cusp of win. Delhi got bowled out for 250 in their second essay. Needing 203 for win, Chandigarh were 46 for no loss at stumps.

Assam in command vs TN

GUWAHATI: Captain Denish Das (109) hit a ton with Sibsankar Roy (69) and Swarupam Purkayastha (90) scoring a fifty each as Assam took first innings lead against Tamil Nadu.

Title hopefuls seek max returns

Man City and Arsenal look to return to winning ways in the Premier League. A look at fixtures...

BRIGHTON VS MAN CITY
11 PM (SATURDAY)

Man City have been treading unfamiliar territory, having lost three back-to-back matches (all comps). With the absence of Rodri and some key players, City have been vulnerable at the back, conceding eight goals in total in the aforementioned run. And now they face a tricky opposition in the form of Brighton, who possess the quality to hurt any side in the Premier League. How will Pep Guardiola's team respond to this mini-slump? Time will tell.

CHELSEA VS ARSENAL | 10 PM (SUNDAY)

Arsenal need a win to stay in conversation for the title as they are already seven points behind toppers Liverpool. And they face Chelsea, who'll be equally determined after a dull show in their last league outing. Arsenal, in particular, have lacked the creativity in their play in recent times. However, the likely return of Martin Odegaard could give them a much-needed lift. Chelsea, meanwhile, will be hopeful that Cole Palmer is fit enough to start and hurt their London rivals.

Alaeddine scores yet again as BFC hold NorthEast

ENS @ Bengaluru

ALAEDDINE Ajaraie has been simply unstoppable this season. The forward from NorthEast United FC scored for the eighth consecutive time in the ongoing season of the Indian Super League, here on Friday. However, his double strike against Bengaluru FC on the day was not enough as the Highlanders were held 2-2.

Such has been Alaeddine's blazing form that he is now the first player to achieve the aforementioned feat in the league. The 31-year-old striker from Morocco now has a tally of 11 goals in eight outings. Against Bengaluru, he scored a quick double within the opening 15 minutes of the contest. But Alberto Noguera's 11th minute strike and substitute Ryan Williams' second-half goal denied Alaeddine's side maximum points.

With a point each for the two sides, Bengaluru sit on top of the ISL standings with 17 points. NorthEast climbed to third spot.

Homework for CFC

Chennaiyin FC head coach Owen Coyle was pleased with his team's 5-1 win over Jamshedpur FC and is hopeful that his side can maintain momentum when they welcome Mumbai City FC at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium in Chennai on Saturday.

NEW MOVE

Broadcaster's South India focus to bolster ILT20 viewership

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WITH the third season of the International League T20, which is scheduled to be played in January 2025, a top officials of the official broadcasters said that they will be focusing on the viewership base in South India for the growth of the league.

The official boradcaster of the league have decided to telecast it on their 15 linear channels off which about five-six are from the southern part of the country. In a conversation with this daily on Friday, Ashish Sehgal, Head of the Integrated Advertisement Revenue, Zee Entertainment Enterprises Ltd, said that South India becomes prominent in their strategy with the linear television viewership the region boasts. He also gives insight into how TV viewership is still is the medium of choice in South India.

"While there is a penetration of mobile phones, people want to watch content on the go, etc., still the content being watched on TV is higher and the penetration of it is higher in this part of the country, which helps any content to reach mass at one go. Digital does not help you to reach mass immediately. I feel that the penetration of any content in the South will be far greater because of TV being a medium. Though in the first two seasons we have seen good results, specifically for ILT20, if I just say any content I have to put, which is why South is becoming more important," Sehgal told this daily.

He believes that having a standalone window and the fact that it is happening at the start of the year helps garner more interest from players as well. "What happens is the players playing in this league, they are all international players, for them it becomes a window to be selected in other leagues and specifically IPL and some of their own country leagues etc. So they can attract higher pricing if they are playing well in this league," he said.

The broadcaster were set to merge with Sony Pictures Networks India (Sony Pictures) but the deal fell through this year. They had entered into a four-year deal with Disney Star for TV broadcasting rights of certain ICC events through the 2024-27 cycle. However, in the end, that did not happen either. Sehgal explained how they have moved on and are bouncing back stronger.

COP29

CAN $1 TRILLION IN CLIMATE FINANCE BE ACHIEVED AMID POLITICAL HURDLES?

In light of potential US policy shifts, China and the European Union are expected to assume more prominent roles at COP29. India, representing the Global South's interests, has advocated strongly for increased and equitable climate finance, especially grant-based and concessional funding. India's current climate-related investments total around $50 billion annually, with approximately 85% coming from domestic sources. This falls significantly short of the $250 billion in yearly investments required until 2047 to transition its energy systems to Net-Zero pathways, according to the government's public policy think tank NITI Aayog

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA @Chennai

THE World Meteorological Organisation (WMO) has declared that 2024 is on track to be the warmest year on record, which means it will be the first year of more than 1.5 degrees Celsius warming above pre-industrial levels (1850-1900).

The consequences of such a global average temperature rise is already being felt worldwide, the latest being the devastating flooding in Spain. India is also among the worst affected countries due to climate change.

As per the assessment done by Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), India experienced extreme weather events on 93% of the days in the first nine months of this year. These weather events killed 3,238 people and affected 3.2 million hectares of crop area. As many as 35 out of 36 states and Union Territories experienced extreme weather events.

Amidst such chaos comes the United Nations Climate Conference (COP29), scheduled to be held in Baku, Azerbaijan starting Monday. It is the most consequential of climate summits since the Paris Agreement as the discussions are set to address the New Collective Quantified Goal (NCQG) for climate finance, a framework that aims to replace the annual commitment of $100 billion made by developed countries in 2009 — a target met only once, in 2022. This year's summit is being labeled the "Finance COP" as developing and vulnerable countries are seeking a minimum of $1 trillion to $1.3 trillion in climate finance. This is in line with the $1 trillion that the Independent High Level Expert Group (IHLEG) has said is needed for developing countries (excluding China) to accelerate climate action.

According to the Second Needs Determination Report by the UNFCCC Standing Committee on Finance (SCF), developing nations will need as much as $6.852 trillion cumulatively until 2030 to achieve their stated Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs).

What India needs

India's stance going into COP29 and G20 Brazil will continue to focus on equitable finance for adaptation and mitigation, with a clear emphasis on accountability from developed nations. India is among the nations that support prioritising public, grant-based and concessional finance for all developing nations. It supports private finance in a supplementary role as a catalyst.

At the G20 Summit in New Delhi in 2023, India, on behalf of Global South nations, asked for $5.9 trillion by 2030 to implement NDCs alone, and a further $4 trillion annually for clean energy technology. This was consolidated further at G20 Brazil, where finance ministers sought deeper reform of the international finance architecture.

Despite ambitious targets, India has only been attracting around $50 billion annually for climate-related investments, split between public funding and private capital, of which 85% is from domestic sources. In contrast, it needs annual investments worth $250 billion till 2047 to prepare India's energy systems for Net-Zero pathways, according to Niti Aayog. India's Economic Survey 2023-24 indicates that the country will need approximately $2.5 trillion by 2030 to fulfil its commitments under the Paris Agreement.

Trump bull in climate change shop

However, the huge stumbling block to achieve the ambitious NCQG at COP29 would be the new US administration under the presidency of Donald Trump, who is a known climate change denier. As soon as the US elections results were out, Christiana Figueres, former UN Climate Change executive secretary and chief negotiator of the landmark Paris Agreement of 2015, termed the result a major blow to global climate action. Trump is expected to try to expand more oil and gas drilling and potentially withdraw again from the Paris Agreement. However, experts feel despite greater geopolitical uncertainty, countries at COP29 will prevail upon and achieve a new climate finance goal.

Frances Colon, senior director of International Climate Policy at Center for American Progress said: "Under a second Trump administration, US federal climate leadership will stall, but subnational actors – states, cities, and civil society will still drive meaningful climate action. This makes COP29 all the more critical to reaffirm collective ambition and unlock creative solutions for scaling clean energy and climate finance."

Li Shuo, Director of China Climate Hub, Asia Society Policy Institute (ASPI) said, "in light of this election's outcome, China will be inevitably in the spotlight as a key mediator, alongside the EU. It will be up to them to truly lead the way forward now that one piece of the puzzle may be missing."

Harjeet Singh, climate activist and Global Engagement Director for the Fossil Fuel Non-Proliferation Treaty Initiative said as the narrow window to prevent catastrophic climate breakdown closes, "the world cannot afford the US, the largest historical carbon emitter and top fossil fuel producer, to shirk its responsibility"

The Warsaw International Mechanism on Loss and Damage (L&D) was a huge milestone in demystifying the concept of L&D and the pathways to achieve the goals. Baku will not only provide an opportunity to review the Warsaw mechanism but also help in developing guidance on the early operationalising of Santiago Network, which aims to catalyse technical assistance on L&D.

"The L&D fund's first report will also be scrutinized to take stock of what worked and what didn't... What will be more effective is to create a mechanism to hasten the delivery of support including financial means to countries affected by L&D," said Dr Nambi Appadurai, Director, Climate Resilience Practice, World Resources Institute (WRI India). While international adaptation finance for developing countries rose to $28 billion in 2022, it is still far below what is required, with estimates suggesting that between $187 and $359 billion annually will be required for overcoming the adaptation finance gap.

Harmonies Without Borders

Traverse the world through folk music at Voices of the World, a multilingual a cappella performance coming to the city this weekend

MAHIMA NAGARAJU

Sowmya Raghavan

THE uplifting crescendos and heartbreaking lulls in a good piece of music are said to do what no spoken language can – unite people in a shared emotion and be a reminder of the joys, sorrows, and heartbreaks we share as human beings, regardless of national or linguistic barriers. Voices of the World, by the Bangalore Broadway Company, is set to do exactly this with a cappella renditions of folk songs from all over the world.

Performing Eastern European, African, Afro-Cuban, Russian, Indian, and Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) folk music in languages like English, Bulgarian, Russian, Japanese, Xhosa, and Yoruban, the group aims to introduce Bengalureans to the vast diversity of folk music worldwide. "The African pieces that we do will be a lot more peppy, some of the Bulgarian pieces have a very mysterious quality to them, and the Russian pieces have a little more of a melancholic tint to them. So you will experience all of these different emotions from different regions," says Sowmya Raghavan, the director of the group. Consisting of singers Anisha Chandy, Deepa Jacob, and Nora Alexy alongside Raghavan, the group's sound is rooted in folk traditions, with a focus on vocals. Keyboard, classical guitar, and drum sounds by Siddharth Suresh, Varun Krishna, and Sanket Chakravorty provide backing for the vocals. "Because the music is folk or folk-inspired – the sounds will be natural, raw, and earthy, with harmonies that you may not be used to if you listen to English songs," says Raghavan.

Before every song, the group shares the story behind it, tracing its roots and conveying its cultural context. "The intention is to introduce audiences to newer forms of music because these are not songs you would typically listen to daily. With the pieces that we do, the listener gets a little bit of context and insight into that particular culture," says Raghavan.

She admits that learning songs in languages so different from Indian languages and English can be a challenge, but the group tries its best to retain authenticity. "We don't want to sound gimmicky in each language," says Raghavan. "There are some languages specifically which are a little difficult and very different. For example, if we're doing a song from the South African language, Xhosa, the 'x' is not a letter but a click sound. We listen to the lyrics carefully, and if we can connect with someone who speaks the language, we'll run through the lyrics with them and get feedback," she says.

(Voices of the World will performed at Jagriti Theatre, Whitefield, on Nov 10 at 7.30pm. Tickets are priced at ₹500 and are available on bookmyshow.com)

As K-culture sweeps Bengaluru, dance workshops bring fans together to master choreography from their favourite music videos, keeping the Hallyu wave alive and thriving

POOJA DAS

STEP UP IN SYNC

NewJeans

WHETHER you are in your twenties, teens, or just stepping out into the world, the phenomenon called 'hallyu' no longer needs an elaborate introduction. What started as millennials vibing to PSY's iconic track, Gangnam Style, has reached a crescendo with an explosion of K-pop boy groups and girl groups taking over the collective consciousness of countless young Gen Zs. And while the craze seems to have peaked, the cultural integration of the 'K-Wave' shows no signs of dying down. Bengalureans are finding new ways to connect with their K-pop idols, including synchronising with their favourite K-pop moves at various workshops popping up in the city.

Many fans in the city have taken to social media platforms, teeming with tutorials to learn the moves of globally acclaimed boy bands like BTS. Roshni Srivastava, director of an IT firm in the city, is an avid admirer of Jungkook, the beloved vocalist of BTS. "I discovered BTS during the pandemic, about three and a half years ago, and I became part of the ARMY (BTS' fandom). With all the time during lockdown, I started practising their dance moves. I've always enjoyed dancing, so this was a natural fit." Her enthusiasm grew after attending a BTS concert, where she experienced the energy of fans from all over the world. "Seeing flash mobs and impromptu dance gatherings with like-minded fans – it deepened my appreciation. That's when I started posting my own dance covers," she says.

The appeal of K-pop dance has also spurred a number of studios and workshops to cater to this growing interest in the city. Saurav Arya, organiser at SmallWorld, which organises art and culture workshops, says, "We began hosting K-pop dance workshops at the start of this year, and it's been incredible to see the interest grow each week. K-pop has become especially popular among Gen Z and even younger fans. It's not just limited to teenagers; even kids as young as 10 are showing up, sometimes with their parents."

The workshops are often held in areas like Koramangala, now home to street vendors selling K-pop merchandise and Korean restaurants with authentic cuisine. "It's clear there's a demand for K-pop culture here," Arya adds. FoxFire Dance Studio, another popular dance studio in the city, recently launched its own K-pop workshops. Kumar, the founder, explains, "We're still in the early stages and haven't promoted the workshops much yet. But seeing how popular K-pop dance is becoming, we're planning to expand and organise more sessions soon." Popular ticket aggregator platforms have become instrumental in gauging interest and attracting participants to these workshops.

> When we first started [the K-pop dance workshops], turnout was small, but as we promoted them, more people started joining. Now we have 10-20 or more per class
> Palak Sanghvi, dancer

Dance workshops are not only about learning the moves; they are also about creating a sense of community among fans. Palak Sanghvi, a dancer and K-pop dance workshop host, has seen firsthand the enthusiasm these classes spark. "When we first started, turnout was small, but as we promoted the workshops, more people started joining," she says. "Now, we get 10-20 participants or even more per class." In her sessions, Sanghvi teaches choreographies from top K-pop music videos, breaking down the intricate steps so that fans can experience the thrill of mastering their idols' moves. "Groups like Stray Kids, EXO, ATEEZ, and girl groups such as NewJeans are fan favourites," she shares. By putting up polls ahead of each class, Sanghvi lets her students decide which choreography they'd like to learn. This approach, she says, has made the workshops even more engaging for the students.

VIRABHADRASANA III AGAINST WALL
(WARRIOR POSE III AGAINST WALL)

This is a variation of the final asana in the traditional three-pose Virabhadrasana series. This Warrior Pose III Against Wall is done with the wall support, and hence it is a dynamic standing asana that requires balance, focus and strength. It is named after Virabhadra, an incarnation of Lord Shiva who is a powerful warrior in Hindu mythology. The first pose in the series represents the arrival of the warrior, materialising out of the ground. The final pose symbolises moving quickly to attack the enemy.

STEPS

- Place your mat against the wall. Stand in Tadasana (Mountain Pose), facing the wall approximately 3-4 feet away.
- Inhale and place your hands on the wall for support. While exhaling, turn the right foot 90 degrees to the right and the left foot 45-60 degree to the right.
- Bend the right knee till your thigh becomes parallel to the floor and perpendicular to your shin. Exhale and bend your trunk forward. Keep the arms straight. Hold this position for 2 breaths.
- Slowly shift the weight of your body on your left leg as you lift the right leg off the floor. Simultaneously raise your right leg and straighten your left leg. The knee of the right leg must face downward. Look either straight or down.
- The whole body except the left leg becomes parallel to the floor in the final position. Once you find balance, stretch your hands forward and your leg backward.
- Retain the pose from 5 to 30 seconds, taking deep breaths.
- Exhale and lower the right leg back onto the floor while bending the left leg.
- Practise again on the other side.

BENEFITS

- Relieves stiffness in the neck, shoulders and back.
- Enhances blood circulation.
- Tones and strengthens shoulders, arms, legs, knees, thighs and ankles.
- Stimulates abdominal organs and aids digestion.
- Builds stamina, and helps develop a sense of balance and coordination and improves focus.
- Stretches muscles of arms, legs, shoulders, neck, belly, and groins
- Helps reduce fat from hips.
- Aids people suffering from sciatica.
- Stimulates the Sahasrara Chakra, which provides a connection to the universe and the Divine.
- Activates the crown chakra through this asana brings ego-free serenity, inner peace and joy.
- Reduces anxiety, calms the mind and helps to improve memory and concentration.

LIMITATIONS

- Students who are suffering from heart problems, severe neck or shoulder pain, knee pain, high blood pressure or recent chronic illness and spinal ailments, should avoid this practice.
- Since it is an arduous pose, avoid holding it for too long.

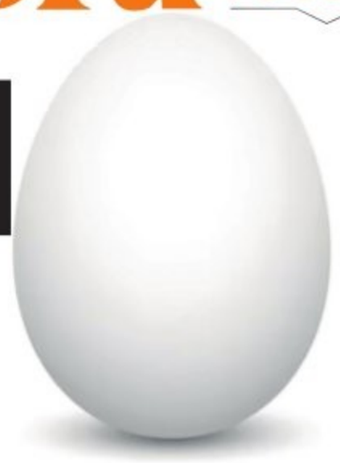
A versatile ingredient that has won hearts across cultures, it's hard to go wrong with the humble egg



-O-MANIA

MAHIMA ANNA JACOB

IN the heart of kitchens around the world lies a simple, unassuming ingredient: the egg. When you don't have the energy to cook up a storm, cracking an egg often leads to a satisfying meal with minimal effort. In short, it's hard to go wrong with this versatile staple.

It's no surprise that eggs have long been celebrated as 'superfoods', primarily due to their impressive nutrient profile. As a complete protein, eggs contain all nine essential amino acids necessary for growth and development. They are also rich in B vitamins and vitamin D, supporting both heart and eye health. One of the standout nutrients found in eggs is choline, which is essential for the functioning of the brain, including memory. A recent study published in the journal Nutrients found that eggs can make your 'brain sharper'. The study states that eggs may help prevent 'cognitive decline' in older women and can even improve semantic memory.

Here are some innovative recipes to put a twist on this versatile food.

THE BIG CLINCHER WAS DEFINITELY WORKING WITH SHIVANNA IN BHAIRATHI RANAGAL: RUKMINI VASANTH

The actor opens up about her role in the Mufti prequel and stepping into her first mass entertainer under Narthan's direction

Rukmini Vasanth

A still from the film

A SHARADHAA

RUKMINI Vasanth, the female lead of Sapta Sagaradaache Ello, is at the stage in her career where she loves to attempt different genres. Recently seen alongside Sriimurali in Dr Suri's Bagheera, which is currently enjoying a strong run at the box office, Rukmini is gearing up for her next. Having played a doctor in Bagheera, she's set to reprise a similar profession in the upcoming Bhairathi Ranagal slated to release on November 15. But there's more to her choice than just the role itself—she was thrilled at the chance to act with Shivarajkumar.

"The big clincher was definitely the opportunity to work with Shivanna," Rukmini admits. "Growing up in Karnataka, aned watching Kannada films, we all know the legend Shivanna is. But as I became an actor, I started exploring his work—the sheer variety of roles he's taken on is amazing. He's celebrated for Om, Jogi, and Mufti, among many, but roles in films like Chigurida Kanasu and Nammoora Mandara Hoove show his range. When I joined the set of Bhairathi Ranagal, I saw firsthand his deep knowledge of cinema. At his age, he's only grown as an actor, which is inspiring to me."

This is Rukmini's first mass entertainer that explores the underworld. When asked about working in this genre, she says, "The approach to the character doesn't change, whether it's an intense underworld role or a lighthearted romance. It's all about the weight the role carries. I haven't done this kind of mass film before, and it's a chance to connect with a new audience. Beyond that, the character's essence remains the same," she explains. "I can't say too much about my role, but as a doctor, it ties deeply into the story," she adds.

While sequels are common, Bhairathi Ranagal made under Geetha Pictures banner is the first attempt at a prequel to Mufti in Kannada cinema, directed by Narthan. Asked what interests her about this backstory approach, Rukmini shares, "Shivanna's character in Mufti was complex, and people are naturally curious about his journey. Not every film needs a prequel, but when a character is as layered as this one, it's exciting to explore more."

Speaking about director Narthan, she says, "He's precise as a writer, with a touch of subtlety. "The arc of character and cinema that people saw in Mufti comes through in this film too," Rukmini concludes with admiration for his work, as she expresses her excitement for what Bhairathi Ranagal will bring to audiences.

A bold exploration of cinema's untold realities by emerging voices

A SHARADHAA

WATCHING Behind The Scenes (BTS) is like stumbling upon cinema's own "disclaimer"—a stark reminder that the cinematic experience remains incomplete without the unseen, unspoken truths that lie behind the glitz and glamour. It's a call to acknowledge that the essence of filmmaking is not just in what we see on screen but in all that goes unnoticed, yet drives the magic forward. BTS brings what is hidden beneath the glitz and reserved for those who know where to look. Imagine a world beyond the red carpets and blinding lights, where stories linger in the shadows and unsung heroes toil away, their faces unknown yet indispensable to every frame that dazzles on the big screen. That's where BTS takes us, with five compelling short films, each running a little more than half an hour, blending the ordinary with the extraordinary and pulling us into the silent, unseen lives of cinema.

While some episodes of Behind The Scenes tug at our heartstrings, exposing lives caught in the crossfire of creative passion and the harsh realities of the film world, others lean into the grind's poetry, celebrating the quiet, relentless pursuit of cinematic dreams—dreams that are sometimes blurred by exhaustion and sacrifice. Each episode, in its own way, unveils a side of filmmaking rarely discussed, offering a human perspective on the pressures, heartbreaks, and triumphs of creating art.

Baanigondu Elle Ellide by Prajwal KS reflects on the struggle between ambition and life's limitations, showing that not all dreams can soar, but the yearning persists.

Coffee, Cigarettes, and Lines by Sai Srinidhi explores the toll of creativity, balancing inspiration with burnout and the pressures of pleasing producers, actors, and audiences. Hero by Kuldeep Cariappa reveals the harsh reality of fame through the eyes of a ragpicker, showing that stardom requires more than dreams—it demands fortitude. Blockbuster by Rajesh N Shankadh lays bare the chaotic race to create a hit, where passion and pressure collide, often overshadowing artistic value. Sumoha by Apoorva Bhardwaj, a personal favourite, celebrates the quiet devotion and sacrifices of those who choose art over comfort, capturing the soul of a true artist.

With some fine performances, Behind the Scenes (BTS) presents an unfiltered, raw look at the overlooked lives and struggles in cinema, with each story serving a purpose that extends beyond mere entertainment. It delves into the hidden world of the often invisible crew members who pour their hearts into the craft without fanfare, as well as the relentless chaos, intense ambition, and mental toll that define the filmmaking process. The anthology captures the bittersweet dreams, unfulfilled ambitions, and the weariness that often seeps into the lives of those who strive to tell meaningful stories.

The pressures of production, financial strain, and the quest for fame are juxtaposed with the deeper, often unnoticed vision that gives cinema its soul. More than just a collection of stories, BTS is a bold exploration of the world of cinema, brought to life by emerging voices who understand the depth of dedication and endurance required to fuel the industry. It also offers a glimpse into the blood, sweat, and tenacity that shape every frame while showing that the "scene" behind cinema isn't merely different—it's chaotic, surreal, and often more haunting than the polished version we see on screen.

'Middle class isn't just an economic status; it's a mindset'

Sunil Raoh opens up about his role as a food delivery boy in Nagaraj Somayaji's Maryade Prashne, produced by Pradeepa's Sakkath Studio, and his experience working with fresh talent for the first time

CE FEATURES

SUNIL Raoh has always been known for creating authentic connection with the middle class through several characters. In Maryade Prashne, he does it yet again with the role of Sathish. Through this role, he not only presents another slice of life of the middle class on screen but also highlights the challenges, dignity, and perseverance of people living this hard life. Following his last appearance in Thurthu Nirgamana, Sunil takes on this layered character in a film directed by Nagaraj Somayaji and produced by Pradeepa under the Sakkath Studio banner, set for a theatrical release on November 22. As he steps into Sathish's shoes as a food delivery boy, Sunil reminds us of the silent heroes in society—those who endure with dignity and redefine the meaning of success.

"Middle class isn't just an economic status; it's a mindset," says Sunil. "It's about valuing what you have, understanding the worth of money, and finding pride in simplicity. I relate to that, and so do most of my roles."

The film's crew includes Arjun Ramu as the music director, Sandeep Valluri as the cinematographer, Prateek Mahesh as the colourist, and Arjun and Sanketh as editors.

Sathish, Sunil's character, is, as he explains, a no-nonsense guy who avoids confrontation but finds himself trapped in situations that test his resilience and values. "There is a sense of desperation in Sathish's role, something we often see around us today. This character symbolises the struggles of a generation that values work, even within a gig economy," Sunil notes, drawing from the reality of food delivery jobs and the post-pandemic need to adapt to any form of employment to make a living. "With so many people ordering food online, the demand for such jobs has skyrocketed. Many workers take up these roles out of necessity, not qualification, driven by the need to support their families rather than stay idle. Stepping into this mindset was a challenge for me."

In Maryade Prashne, Sathish has a backstory familiar to many in today's world. Once, he tried his hand at his ventures but faced losses, echoing the reality of those who have shifted from previous careers to newer, often humbling roles. "It's about the dignity of labour and the idea that no job is beneath anyone," says Sunil.

The ensemble cast includes both new faces and seasoned actors, with Sunil sharing the screen with talents like Rakesh Adiga, Poornachandra Mysuru, Teju Belawadi, and Rekha Kudligi. The film also features Prabhu Mundkur, Shine Shetty, Shravan, and Hariharan, representing a higher social class. Sunil is particularly thrilled by the organic chemistry among the cast. "Except for Nagendra Shah, whom I knew well, the rest of the actors were new to me. I had seen some of Rakesh Adiga's, Rekha Kudligi's, and Poorna's work, but this was our first time working together. These actors brought a refreshing authenticity; they felt like characters, not performers. I was pleasantly surprised by each of them, especially Rakesh and Poornachandra. Working with this team was like watching characters come to life," says Sunil Raoh. "I'm glad that even though I'm gradually getting regular with various projects, I'm finding interesting roles to play," he says as he signs off.
